Research, Quality, Competitiveness

Second edition
Contents

Part I Competitiveness of the European Union

1 Origins of the European Union .............................................. 3
  1.1 After the Second World War ........................................... 3
  1.2 The Treaty of Rome ..................................................... 4
  1.3 Enlargement of the European Economic Community .............. 6
  1.4 Main Steps in the Construction of the European Union .......... 7
  1.5 Recommended Reading .................................................. 7

2 Overview of Member States ................................................. 9
  2.1 Geographic Data ....................................................... 9
  2.2 Demographic Data ..................................................... 9
  2.3 Economic Data ....................................................... 19
  2.4 Recommended Reading ................................................ 33

3 Competitiveness of the European Economy ............................... 35
  3.1 European Economy and Global Market .............................. 35
  3.2 GDP in the World ..................................................... 36
  3.3 Industrial Structure .................................................. 40
  3.4 Shares in the High-Tech Market .................................... 42
  3.5 Industrial Specialization ............................................. 43
  3.6 Emerging Economies .................................................. 44
  3.7 Comparing Productivity in the Triad ............................... 57
  3.8 Standard of Living ................................................... 62
  3.9 European Union’s Foreign Trade .................................... 65
  3.10 Foreign Trade with Enlargement Countries ....................... 73
  3.11 Italy’s Foreign Trade ................................................. 73
  3.12 EU Foreign Trade in the Textile Industry ......................... 77
  3.13 Foreign Trade and Competition with Emerging Economies ....... 79
  3.14 Services and Infrastructures ....................................... 85
  3.15 Comparing Countries’ Competitiveness ............................ 85
  3.16 Factors Contributing to Growth in Competitiveness ............. 97
3.17 Small and Medium-Sized Enterprises .......................................... 111
3.18 Policy Guidelines ...................................................................... 119
3.19 Policy Guidelines for Italy ......................................................... 122
3.20 Prospects .................................................................................. 124
3.21 Recommended Reading ............................................................... 125

4 Competitiveness and Quality ....................................................... 127
4.1 Cost of Labour ............................................................................ 127
4.2 Measuring Quality ..................................................................... 129
4.3 Unit Value .................................................................................. 131
4.4 RQE Index ................................................................................ 132
4.5 PPS Index .................................................................................. 133
4.6 Exports and Quality ................................................................... 133
4.7 Quality Premium ......................................................................... 139
4.8 Classification of Industrial Sectors in Terms of Quality .......... 139
4.9 System to Monitor the Quality Position of National Economies 146
4.10 Is “Good Enough” Better Than “Best”? ................................. 147
4.11 Outlook ..................................................................................... 148
4.12 Fiat Auto: A Case Study ............................................................ 149
4.13 Recommended Reading ............................................................. 155

Part II Research and Technology Policy in the European Union

5 EU Research: Objectives and Results ......................................... 159
5.1 From Euratom to the Framework Program .............................. 160
5.2 Results of EU Research ............................................................. 168
5.3 Research Funding ..................................................................... 176
5.4 R&D Funding from the Financial Market ................................. 183
5.5 Participating in Research Activities .......................................... 184
5.6 Evaluation Criteria of Research Proposals ............................... 186
5.7 Recommended Reading ............................................................. 188

6 Framework Programs .................................................................. 189
6.1 Fifth Framework Program .......................................................... 189
6.2 Sixth Framework Program .......................................................... 190
6.3 Funding for the Seventh Framework Program ....................... 191
6.4 Implementing the Seventh Framework Program ..................... 193
6.5 The European Research Council .............................................. 196
6.6 The European Institute of Technology .................................... 197
6.7 Projects and Results in the Areas of the Ongoing Framework Programs .................................................. 198
6.8 Recommended Reading ............................................................. 199
Contents

7 Entrepreneurship, Innovation, and Competitiveness
- 7.1 Community-Funded Research and Enterprise Innovation 201
- 7.2 A New Entrepreneurship in a Knowledge-Based Economy 202
- 7.3 Context and Objectives of Innovation Policy 203
- 7.4 Funding Innovation Policy 204
- 7.5 The Eureka Initiative 207
- 7.6 Obstacles to Innovation 208
- 7.7 Innovation in the U.S. 212
- 7.8 Technology Transfer in the European Union 214
- 7.9 Recommended Reading 215

8 Competitiveness in the Knowledge-Based Society
- 8.1 The Third Industrial Revolution 217
- 8.2 e-Business 219
- 8.3 e-Government 222
- 8.4 The Initial Formulation of the Lisbon Strategy 223
- 8.5 The e-Europe Projects 226
- 8.6 i–2010 – A European Information Society for Growth and Employment 227
- 8.7 The Revamped Lisbon Strategy 228
- 8.8 Monitoring the Progress 230
- 8.9 Enterprise Strategy in the Knowledge-Based Society 241
- 8.10 The Bottom Line 259
- 8.11 Recommended Reading 260

9 The Position of the EU in the Quest for Competitiveness and Beyond
- 9.1 Recommended Reading 265

Part III Overview of the Institutional Context of the European Union

10 From the Treaty of Rome to the Reform Treaty of Lisbon
- 10.1 Evolution of the Treaties 269
- 10.2 Institutions of the European Union 287
- 10.3 Acts of the Institutions 301
- 10.4 Activities of the European Union 303
- 10.5 Implementation of Community Policies 304
- 10.6 Recommended Reading 307

11 Enlargement of the European Union
- 11.1 What is There to Gain? 309
- 11.2 Criteria for Accession to the European Union 311
- 11.3 Accession Countries and the Euro 312
- 11.4 First Wave of Enlargement 313
11.5 An Overview of the 2004 Enlargement ........................................... 314
11.6 The 2004 Enlargement Three Years On ........................................ 369
11.7 Second Wave: An Overview of the 2007 Enlargement ..................... 377
11.8 A New Set of Candidate Countries Includes Turkey: A Litmus Test for European Identity .............................................................. 388
11.9 Recommended Reading ................................................................. 419

12 Budget of the European Union ......................................................... 421
12.1 Financial Perspectives ................................................................. 421
12.2 Resources ................................................................................... 424
12.3 Expenditure ................................................................................ 426
12.4 Return on Contributions ............................................................... 428
12.5 Recommended Reading ................................................................. 429

13 Internal Market and Competition ..................................................... 431
13.1 Internal Market ........................................................................... 431
13.2 Competition Policy ..................................................................... 437
13.3 Transformations Introduced by the Internal Market ....................... 440
13.4 Policies for the Creation of the Internal Market ............................ 441
13.5 Impact of the Internal Market ...................................................... 442
13.6 Research, the Internal Market, and Competitiveness ................. 443
13.7 Competition Policy and R&D Funding ......................................... 444
13.8 The Way Ahead ........................................................................... 444
13.9 Recommended Reading ................................................................. 445

14 Economic and Monetary Union ......................................................... 447
14.1 History of Monetary Integration ................................................... 447
14.2 Criteria for Qualification ................................................................ 448
14.3 Introduction Stages of the Euro .................................................... 450
14.4 EMU and Budget Balance ............................................................. 451
14.5 European Central Bank ............................................................... 455
14.6 Euro Versus Dollar ...................................................................... 456
14.7 Prospects for the European Economy With a Strong Euro ........... 457
14.8 Monetary Stability ...................................................................... 462
14.9 Economic and Monetary Union and Member States Sovereignty .... 463
14.10 Stability and Growth Pact .............................................................. 464
14.11 EMU and Enlargement ............................................................... 467
14.12 Advantages of the Euro ............................................................... 467
14.13 Recommended Reading ................................................................. 472
A  Steps in the Construction of the European Union ......................... 473

B  University Courses on Research, Quality, and Competitiveness ...... 481

C  Contents of the Recommended Reading Web Site ...................... 487
   C.1  Recommended Reading ............................................. 487
   C.2  Figures .............................................................. 487
   C.3  Tables ............................................................... 488
   C.4  Slides ............................................................... 488
   C.5  Link to Updates ................................................... 488
   C.6  Book Reviews ..................................................... 488
   C.7  Errata ............................................................... 488
   C.8  Recommended Reading by Chapter .............................. 488

References ................................................................. 503

Glossary ................................................................. 521

Acronyms and Abbreviations ............................................ 527

Index ................................................................. 533