The Supervision of Banks in Europe: The Case for a Tailor-made Set-up
Table of contents

1. Introduction 7

2. The current European supervisory structure for cross-border banks 8

3. Alternative supervisory structures 11
   3.1 A Pan-European Financial Authority 11
   3.2 A European System of Financial Supervisors 12
   3.3 Consolidated supervision 13

4. Empirical findings 16
   4.1 Are EU banks predominantly nationally oriented? 16
   4.2 Are non-domestically oriented EU banks predominantly European or global? 19
   4.3 Are non-domestically oriented European banks predominantly pan-European or regional? 21

5. Supervisory implications: the need for a tailor-made set-up 26

6. Conclusions 29

References 31