The Ethical Business

Challenges and Controversies

Kamel Mellahi
Kevin Morrell
and Geoffrey Wood

Second Edition
Contents

List of tables, figures and cartoons xi
Preface to the second edition xii
Acknowledgements xiii
Introduction xiv

Part 1 Theoretical foundations

1 Introducing business ethics 3
   1.1 Introduction 3
   1.2 Moral relatives and ethical absolutes 6
      1.2.1 What is ethical conduct? 6
      1.2.2 Why does business ethics matter? 8
      1.2.3 Practice and theory 10
      1.2.4 What is ethics practice? 12
   1.3 Different philosophical approaches to business ethics 13
      1.3.1 Key perspectives 13
      1.3.2 Deontology 14
      1.3.3 Utilitarianism 15
      1.3.4 Virtue ethics 21
      1.3.5 Rights-based approaches 22
      1.3.6 Postmodern ethics 25
   1.4 Summary 27

2 The ethical business and the business of ethics 31
   2.1 Introduction 31
   2.2 The science of the good? 34
   2.3 Business ethics, and the business of ethics 37
   2.4 Theory-based and case-based approaches to business ethics 39
   2.5 A domain-based, situated approach to the business of ethics 43
   2.6 The case of Jean Charles de Menezes' death 45
   2.7 The problem of assigning responsibility 47
   2.8 The way forward 49
Part 2  Issues facing management

3  Corporate governance  55
   3.1  Introduction  55
   3.2  Corporate governance and business ethics  56
      3.2.1  What is corporate governance?  56
      3.2.2  Why corporate governance now?  57
   3.3  Corporate governance and boards of directors  59
      3.3.1  Monitoring role  59
      3.3.2  Advisory role  60
   3.4  Potential barriers to the involvement of the board of directors  60
      3.4.1  Lack of time  61
      3.4.2  Board atmosphere  61
   3.5  A framework for ethical corporate governance  63
   3.6  Corporate governance and different institutional frameworks  65
   3.7  Corporate governance and stakeholder theory  67
   3.8  The different perspectives of stakeholder theory  69
      3.8.1  The descriptive perspective  69
      3.8.2  The instrumental perspective  71
      3.8.3  The normative perspective  72
   3.9  Principles of stakeholder management  72
   3.10  Summary  73

4  Social partnerships  78
   4.1  Introduction  79
   4.2  What is a social partnership?  79
   4.3  Social partnerships as an ethical principle  81
   4.4  Types of social partnership  82
      4.4.1  Community partnerships  82
   4.5  Social accords: neo-corporatism  85
   4.6  Workplace-based social partnerships  86
   4.7  Social partnerships and European integration  87
   4.8  Social partnerships and the philosophical tradition  87
   4.9  Summary  88

5  Green issues  98
   5.1  Introduction  102
   5.2  What is environmental ethics?  103
   5.3  Why does the environment matter?  103
   5.4  Policy issues and pressures  106
   5.5  Environmental practices  107
   5.6  Philosophy and the environment  108
   5.7  The hard green perspective  109
   5.8  The deep ecology perspective  110