Contents

About the authors xii
List of abbreviations xiii

Introduction: Why entrepreneurship? 1
Robert B. Mellor

PART I PRINCIPLES 5

1 Developing People and Competencies 7
Robert B. Mellor

Introduction 7
Capitalizing on a bright idea 7
Covering the business side 9
The essential social and business network 11
Building the right strategy 13
Choosing a topic 14
The development of a start-up 15
Chapter summary 16
References 16
Further reading 16
Web links 17
Suggestion for exercises 17

2 The Economics of Entrepreneurship and Innovation 18
Robert B. Mellor

Introduction 18
The evolution of innovation and enterprise 18
Value chains 19
Economic cycles 21
Focus on entrepreneurship 21
Owners, capitalists and entrepreneurs 23
Invention is not innovation 24
Types of innovation 25
Sources of innovation 28
3 Promoting Creativity

Robert B. Mellor

Introduction 31
Defining creativity 31
The psychological origins of creativity 32
Tools for analysing problems 33
Tools for promoting creativity 34
Creativity focused on the marketplace 36
Evaluating ideas 37
Chapter summary 38
References 38
Further reading 39
Web links 39
Suggestions for exercises 39

PART II PRACTICE

4 Gaining Strategic Advantage

Robert B. Mellor

Introduction 43
Positioning in the marketplace 43
Tools for analysing the market 45
Successfully inhabiting the market 47
Formulating a mission statement 49
Analysing your products 50
Chapter summary 51
References 51
Further reading 51
Web links 52
Suggestions for exercises 52

5 The Marketing Plan

Robert B. Mellor

Introduction 53
Customer segmentation 53
The form of the marketing plan 55
How to do market research 56
6 The Business Plan
Robert B. Mellor

Introduction
Sources of capital investment
Business angels and venture capitalists
The form of the business plan
The classical 16 sections template
Due diligence
Chapter summary
References
Further reading
Web links
Suggestion for exercises

PART III CONTEXT

7 Intellectual Capital
Robert B. Mellor

Introduction
The three types of intellectual capital
Patents and other formal IPR
Innovation in organizations
Human capital, the life-blood of small companies
Who is especially innovative?
Mixing skills promotes innovation
Trickle-down rebound
Harvesting human capital
Intrapreneurship, or corporate entrepreneurship
Technology transfer
The ins and outs of strategic alliances
Mergers and acquisitions
Chapter summary
8 Knowledge Management

Robert B. Mellor

- Introduction
- The knowledge economy
- The value of knowledge
- Information, knowledge and learning
- Human capital revisited: knowledge assets
- Information systems software

Chapter summary

References
Further reading
Web links
Suggestions for exercises

9 Presentation Technique

Robert B. Mellor

- Introduction
- Getting the message across
- The perception of communication
- Public speaking
- Body language
- Appearance and dress code
- Getting a feel for the audience
- Audio-visual aids
- The structure of a presentation
- End on a good note

Chapter summary

References
Further reading
Web links
Suggestions for exercises

PART IV SPECIALISMS

10 Technical Innovation

Robert B. Mellor

- Introduction
- The influence of globalization
11 The Biotechnology Revolution

Gary Coulton

Introduction
Biotech is unique in many aspects
Opportunities for biotech entrepreneurs
Where do disrupting biotechnologies arise?
Opportunities in outsourcing
Entrepreneurship for the recent graduate
The customer mindset
Paradigm shift – the world changes around you
Further barriers: the legislative environment
Chapter summary
References
Further reading
Web links
Suggestions for exercises

12 Green Entrepreneurship: A sustainable development challenge

Anne Chick

Introduction
The imminent discontinuities
Green entrepreneurship
What is sustainable development?
Defining ecopreneurship
The development of the green market
Are environment and economics opposed?
Characteristics of the green marketplace
Fostering ecopreneurial behaviour
Chapter summary
References
Further reading
Web links
Suggestions for exercises
13  Enterprise in Health and Social Care
Antonia Bifulco
Introduction
Social desire and reward
Entrepreneurial motivation
Market demand is increasing
The product can be many things
The various customers
Knowledge and skill requirements
What you need to know
Obstacles
Social enterprise
Not-for-profit organizations
Voluntary organizations: social entrepreneurship
Chapter summary
References
Further reading
Web links
Suggestion for exercises

14  Journalism and Media Entrepreneurs
Noha Mellor
Introduction
Journalism as part of the cultural industries
Culture in post-industrial times
Why culture is important
Media and Porter's five forces
The rewards can be significant
The media convergence revolution
Innovation and journalism
Freelancing, the fastest route to fame
The importance of networking
Entrepreneurial strategies and success factors
Chapter summary
References
Further reading
Web links
Suggestions for exercises

15  General Characteristics of the Creative Arts
Alan Fisher
Introduction
Characteristics of the creative arts industry generally
State support 185
Entertainment market analysis 185
Who buys what? 185
Barriers for the entrepreneur 185
The film industry 188
The music industry 195
Chapter summary 200
References 201
Further reading 201
Web links 201
Suggestions for exercises 202

PART V ACTION 203

16 Growing the Venture 205
Robert B. Mellor

Introduction 205
Innovative is attractive 205
Franchising 206
Business is about selling 207
Marketing and advertising in the small company 208
Leadership and the small company 209
Your professional network 210
Entrepreneurial management 211
Learning from failure 212
Chapter summary 212
References 213
Further reading 213
Web links 213
Suggestions for exercises 213

Glossary 214

Appendix A: The Ten-Dimension Rating Scale 217

Appendix B: Additional Case Studies 222

Appendix C: Some Suggested Project Ideas 229

Index 233