Women’s Land Rights & Privatization in Eastern Africa

Edited by

BIRGIT ENGLERT
Assistant Professor at the Department of African Studies
University of Vienna
&
ELIZABETH DALEY
Independent consultant

James Currey
Fountain Publishers
EAEP
E & D Vision Publishing
Contents

Notes on Contributors ix
Foreword by Robin Palmer x

Introduction 1
Women’s land rights & privatization
BIRGIT ENGLERT & ELIZABETH DALEY

1
Breathing Life into Dead Theories 18
about Property Rights in Rural Africa
Lessons from Kenya
CELESTINE NYAMU-MUSEMBI

2
‘Go Home & Clear the Conflict’ 40
Human rights perspectives on gender & land in Tanzania
INGUNN IKDAHL

3
Gender, Uenyeji, Wealth, Confidence & Land in Kinyanambo 61
The impact of commoditization, rural-urban change & land registration in Mufindi District, Tanzania
ELIZABETH DALEY

4
Changing Land Rights & Gendered Discourses 83
Examples from the Uluguru Mountains, Tanzania
BIRGIT ENGLERT

5
Falling Between Two Stools 101
How women’s land rights are lost between state & customary law in Apac District, Northern Uganda
JUDY ADOKO & SIMON LEVINE