Value Chain Struggles

Institutions and Governance in the Plantation Districts of South India

Jeff Neilson and Bill Pritchard
Contents

List of Figures
List of Tables
Series Editors' Preface
Acknowledgements
List of Abbreviations

1. Introduction
2. Re-inserting Place and Institutions within Global Value Chain Analysis
3. How to Make a (South Indian) Cup of Tea or Coffee
4. The Institutional Environment of the South Indian Tea and Coffee Industries
5. Struggles over Labour and Livelihoods
6. Struggles over Environmental Governance in the Coffee Forests of Kodagu
7. Smallholder Engagement in Global Value Chains: Initiatives in the Nilgiris
8. Making a Living in the Global Economy: Institutional Environments and Value Chain Upgrading
9. Conclusion: What We Brewed

Appendix A: The Role of Managing Agents
Appendix B: The Operation and Intended Reform of South India's Tea Auctions
Appendix C: Restructuring of Tata Tea's Munnar Operations

Notes
Bibliography
Index