New Perspectives for Economic Development and Integration. The Experiences of Poland and Ukraine

Edited by:
Jacek Bednarz

Lublin 2008
CONTENTS

Foreword

Part I. Globalization – a New Paradigm and Knowledge

Tamara Smovzenko, Halina Stebliy
Globalization and the Strategic Model of Socio-Economic Development

Teresa Bal-Woźniak, Michał Gabriel Woźniak
Innovation in the Process of Intensifying Intellectual and Social Capital Development. Proposals for Poland and Ukraine

Elżbieta Skrzypek, Adam Skrzypek
Knowledge and Intellectual Capital in 21st-Century Global Economy

Part II. Management – New Perspectives?

Anna Zarębska
The Impact of Managing Identity on the Activity of a Company – an Analysis of Selected Polish Cases

Katarzyna Sołkowicz
European Management – an Issue of Managerial Consciousness?

Ján Morovič
Economic Cooperation of Local and Multinational Companies in the European Dimension

Part III. Prospects of Economic Cooperation and Integration

Monika Bačová, Zuzana Brčová
Financing the Development Activities of Small and Medium-Sized Enterprises, and of the Local Governments in the Slovak Districts Bordering Poland and Ukraine

Ireneusz Jaźwiński, Agnieszka Kiernożycka-Sobejko
Coopetition as a Paradigm of Socio-Economic Development in an Integrating Europe
Jarosław Kuśpit
The Trade Exchange with Ukraine as Affected by Poland's Membership in the European Union................................................................. 116

Jacek Bednarz, Stanisław Gędek
Behaviour of the Ukrainian Hryvnia towards Selected European Currencies ................................................................. 125

Marian Zalesko
Historical and Institutional Determinants of European Economic Integration................................................................. 138