Literacy for all:
Making a difference

Agneta Lind
Contents

Preface .................................................. 11
List of abbreviations ................................. 15
List of tables ........................................ 17
List of boxes ......................................... 17
Introduction .......................................... 19

I. The challenges of literacy for all ............... 25
   The size and distribution of the literacy problem 25
   What to measure and how .......................... 29
   Why slow progress in spite of numerous commitments? 31
   Emerging challenges of the twenty-first century 38

II. Meanings and concepts of adult literacy ......... 41
   Practical meanings of some basic concepts and terminology 41
   Internationally adopted concepts of literacy .... 47
   The terminology in brief .......................... 55

III. Why literacy for all, not just school children? 57
   Why literacy for all? ............................... 57
   Does adult literacy matter? ....................... 61
   Explicit motivations by stakeholders or providers and sponsors 72
   Motivations among learners and potential learners 74
   Literacy as a plurality of potential assets ....... 77

IV. Enabling contexts and learning environments .... 79
   Historical perspectives ............................ 79
   Political will and overall development context .. 80
   Literate environments and language policies .... 82
Contents

V. Literacy acquisition and teaching-learning approaches 87
   General curriculum issues 87
   Different approaches to teaching and learning literacy 94
   Social awareness or ‘liberation’ approaches 95
   Development-oriented or ‘functional’ approaches 98
   Formal education or continuing adult education approaches 101
   Growing convergence of literacy approaches 102

VI. Evaluating and monitoring literacy programmes 105
    Evaluating learning outcomes 106
    Monitoring ongoing programme activities 109
    Key outcome indicators 112

VII. National policies and strategies 115
    Governance and partnerships 115
    Implications and challenges of going to scale 124

VIII. Conclusions and implications for educational planners 135

References 139