Open Regional Labour Markets and Socio-Economic Developments

Studies on Adjustment and Spatial Interaction

CONTENTS

Preface..... v

1. Introduction

1.1. Setting the Scene..... 1
1.2. Aims and Scope..... 3
1.3. Structure of this Study..... 4

2. Adjustments and Regional Labour Markets: an Overview

2.1. Introduction: Labour Market Issues..... 9
2.2. Shifts in Local Labour Demand: The Wage Curve Literature..... 11
2.3. Shifts in Local Labour Supply: The Impact of Immigration..... 15
2.4. Institutional Changes: The Impact of Economic Integration..... 17
2.5. Institutional Differences: Collective Bargaining and the Local Labour Market..... 21
2.6. Adjustments, Spillovers and Regional Short-term Forecasts..... 23
2.7. Summary and Conclusions..... 26

Part I

Spatial Labour Market Responses to Exogenous Changes

3. Local Labour Demand Shifts and Local Wages: the Wage Curve

3.1. Introduction..... 31
3.2. Theoretical Framework
3.2.1. Theoretical Explanations for the Wage Curve..... 33
3.2.2. Implications of Monopsonistic Local Labour Markets..... 34
3.3. An Alternative Look at the Wage Curve
3.3.1. Previous Analyses of the German Wage Curve..... 35
3.3.2. Further Evidence on the German Wage Curve..... 36
3.3.3. Spatial Spillovers..... 40
3.3.4. Spatial Heterogeneity..... 48
3.4. Summary and Conclusions..... 53
Annex to Chapter 3: Details of the Data Set..... 55

4. Local Labour Supply Shifts and Local Wages: A Meta-Analysis

4.1. Introduction..... 57
4.2. Theoretical Framework..... 59
4.3. The Sample of Studies
4.3.1. The Effect Sizes Compared..... 62
4.3.2. Descriptive Analysis..... 63
4.4. Meta-Analysis
4.4.1. Techniques for Meta-Analysis..... 65
4.4.2. Meta-Regression Analysis..... 68

4.4.3. Sensitivity Analysis.....	76
4.5. Summary and Conclusions.....	78

Part II

Impact of Institutional Changes on Open Labour Markets

5. Economic Integration and Reallocation of Labour Demand

5.1. Introduction: the Case of the New EU Member States.....	83
5.2. Economic Integration and Firm Relocation.....	85
5.3. Regional Specialisation
5.3.1. The Data Set.....	86
5.3.2. Changes in Patterns of Regional Specialisation.....	87
5.4. Relocation of Labour Demand
5.4.1. Model Specification.....	90
5.4.2. Regional and Industrial Characteristics.....	91
5.4.3. Estimation Issues.....	94
5.4.4. Estimation Results.....	95
5.4.5. Sensitivity Analysis.....	98
5.5. Summary and Conclusions.....	100
Annex to Chapter 5: Detailed Results.....	102

6. Collective Bargaining Systems and Local Labour Demand

6.1. Introduction.....	109
6.2. Theoretical Background
6.2.1. Evidence on the Effects of Specialisation on Labour Market Variables.....	111
6.2.2. Collective Bargaining Systems: A Brief Overview.....	112
6.2.3. Theoretical Considerations.....	114
6.3. Empirical Analysis
6.3.1. Data and Measurement.....	117
6.3.2. Collective Bargaining and Regional Unemployment Differentials.....	119
6.3.3. Collective Bargaining, Unemployment and Specialisation.....	122
6.4. Summary and Conclusions.....	126

Part III

Demand, Supply and Institutions: Encompassing Dynamics of Local Labour Markets

7. Multiple Adjustments and Short-term Local Employment Forecasts

7.1. Introduction.....	131
7.2. Forecasting Regional Employment
7.2.1. The Forecasting Problem.....	133
7.2.2. Evaluation of the Model's Performance.....	135
7.3. Artificial Neural Networks: an Introduction
7.3.1. Artificial Neural Network Architecture.....	136
7.3.2. Computation of the Network Weights.....	138
7.3.3. Choice of the Hidden Units.....	139
7.4. Panel Data Techniques.....	140
7.5. Empirical Application
7.5.1. Artificial Neural Network Forecasts.....	142

7.5.2. Panel Model Forecasts.....	146
7.6. Summary and Conclusions.....	149

8. Spatial Spillovers, Spatial Autocorrelation, and Short-term Local Employment Forecasts

8.1. Introduction.....	151
8.2. Spatial Autocorrelation.....	152
8.3. Models Accounting for Spatial Autocorrelation
8.3.1. Panel Models.....	153
8.3.2. Artificial Neural Network Models.....	155
8.4. Empirical Application
8.4.1. Spatial Autocorrelation.....	156
8.4.2. Panel Model Forecasts.....	159
8.4.3. Artificial Neural Network Forecasts.....	161
8.5. Summary and Conclusions.....	163

Part IV

Retrospect and Prospect

9. Summary and Conclusions

9.1. Summary.....	167
9.2. Conclusions and Policy Lessons.....	170
9.3. Future Research Directions.....	173
