International Institute for Labour Studies

Pursuing decent work goals: Priorities for research

Editors
Gerry RODGERS and Christiane KUPTSCH

Contributors
Jayati GHOSH
Evance KALULA
José Antonio OCAMPO
José PASTORE
Sandra POLASKI
Ida REGALIA

Research Series 115
Table of contents

List of contributors .............................................................. vii

Preface ........................................................... ix
   Raymond Torres

Introduction: Perspectives on the ILO’s research agenda .......... 1
   Gerry Rodgers and Christiane Kuptsch

Part I: Global challenges .................................................. 11

The links between economic and social policies:
A conceptual framework .................................................. 13
   José Antonio Ocampo

Research for the Decent Work Agenda: What we need to know about the impact of trade policy ................................................ 23
   Sandra Polaski

Regulation and protection in a global labour market.
What way forward? ....................................................... 31
   José Pastore

Part II: Regional perspectives .......................................... 37

New research questions in the Decent Work Agenda, a view from Asia ....................................................... 39
   Jayati Ghosh
Pursuing decent work goals: Priorities for research

The Decent Work Agenda: An African perspective on research needs and priorities ........................................ 49
   Evance Kalula

Informal work and new forms of employment in Europe: Challenges for research and action ..................... 59
   Ida Regalia

Annex: Summary of key points ........................................ 73