Infrastructure’s Role in Lowering Asia’s Trade Costs
Contents

List of contributors vii
Foreword by Masahiro Kawai ix
List of abbreviations xi

1 Infrastructure’s role in lowering Asia’s trade costs
   Douglas H. Brooks 1

2 Trends in Asian trade: implications for transport infrastructure and trade costs
   David Hummels 17

3 Trade infrastructure and trade costs: a study of selected Asian ports
   Jon Haveman, Adina Ardelean and Christopher Thornberg 37

4 Empirical estimates of transportation costs: options for enhancing Asia’s trade
   Prabir De 73

5 Port competitiveness: a case study of Semarang and Surabaya, Indonesia
   Arianto A. Patunru, Nanda Nurridzki and Rivayani 113

6 Infrastructure and trade costs in Malaysia: the importance of FDI and exports
   Tham Siew Yean, Evelyn Devadason and Loke Wai Heng 148

7 Infrastructure development in a fast-growing economy: the People’s Republic of China
   Liqiang Ma and Jinkang Zhang 182

8 Trade transportation costs in South Asia: an empirical investigation
   Prabir De 230

Index 261