DECENTRALIZATION AND DEVOLUTION IN KENYA: NEW APPROACHES

Edited by
Thomas N. Kibua
Germano Mwabu

University of Nairobi Press
Table of Contents

List of Tables, Figures and Appendices ..............................................................vi
List of Contributors .........................................................................................ix
Preface ..............................................................................................................xi

PART I BACKGROUND ................................................................................. xiii

1. Introduction ............................................................................................... 1

PART II STRUCTURES AND INSTITUTIONS ............................................. 7

2. District Focus for Rural Development as a Decentralized Planning Strategy: An Assessment of its Implementation in Kenya .............................................. 9
3. The Rural Trade and Production Centres Program in Kenya: Experiences and Prospects .......................................................................................... 47
4. Devolution of Governance to Districts in Kenya: A Case Study ............. 77

PART III PRINCIPLES AND PROCESSES ............................................. 103

5. Devolution and Democratic Governance: Options for Kenya .............. 105
7. Fiscal Decentralization in Kenya: The Case of Local Authority Transfer Funds ......................................................................................................... 169

PART IV SERVICE DELIVERY AND FINANCING ................................ 197

8. Planning and Budgeting at the Grassroots Level: The Case of Local Authority Service Delivery Action Plans ............................................................... 199
9. Better Services for All: The Impact of LASDAP in an Informal Settlement of Nairobi ............................................................................................. 235
10. Service Delivery Capacity of the District Health Systems in Kenya ........ 265
12. Management and Utilization of Constituency Development Funds in Kenya ......................................................................................................... 329

Index .............................................................................................................. 363