Part One: Human Resource Management in Context

1 Introducing human resource management
   Sarah Gilmore
   1.1 Introduction
   1.2 HRM themes
   1.3 HRM in practice
   1.4 HRM and personnel management
   1.5 The rise of HRM
   1.6 The changing nature of work
   1.7 Reinventing the personnel function
   1.8 From HRM to the new HR?
   1.9 HRM themes revisited
   1.10 Conclusion
       Discussion questions

Case study: Changing HR management at Bolton Wanderers football club

2 The strategic dimensions of human resource management
   Sarah Gilmore
   2.1 Introduction
   2.2 HRM themes
   2.3 The nature of strategy
   2.4 Approaches to the strategy-making process
   2.5 Strategy, business performance, and human resource strategy
   2.6 HRM themes revisited
   2.7 Conclusion
       Discussion questions

Case study: Business strategy and HRM in boutique hotels

3 The business environment of human resource management
   Rob Thomas
   3.1 Introduction
   3.2 HRM themes
   3.3 Scanning the external environment
   3.4 Inner orbit: the influence of markets and competition
   3.5 Outer orbit (1): politics, (macro)economics, and the law
   3.6 Outer orbit (2): social, ethical, and ecological
   3.7 Technology and globalization
   3.8 HRM themes revisited
4 Human resource management in an organizational context
   David Preece
   4.1 Introduction 69
   4.2 HRM themes 69
   4.3 Organizations, organizational change, and HRM 70
   4.4 Managing and working in organizations 76
   4.5 Culture, power, and politics in organizations 81
   4.6 HRM themes revisited 86
   4.7 Conclusion 87
   Discussion questions 87
   Case study: Organizational change at Bass Taverns 88

Part Two: Human Resource Management in Practice

5 Recruiting and selecting staff in organizations
   Iain Ballantyne
   5.1 Introduction 93
   5.2 HRM themes 93
   5.3 Systems and decision-making approaches 94
   5.4 Reviewing the need for labour 96
   5.5 The recruitment process 97
   5.6 Recruitment methods 101
   5.7 The selection process 105
   5.8 The limitations of the systems and decision-making approaches 112
   5.9 HRM themes revisited 113
   5.10 Conclusion 114
   Discussion questions 115
   Case study: Recruiting and selecting staff at Thomas Cook 116

6 Developing human resources
   Sarah Gilmore
   6.1 Introduction 118
   6.2 HRM themes 118
   6.3 The changing nature of skills 119
   6.4 The practice of training 125
   6.5 Responses to heightened competition: the focus on learning 131
   6.6 HRM themes revisited 136
   6.7 Conclusion 136
   Discussion questions 137
   Case study: HRM and employee development at the National Theatre 138

7 Managing performance
   David Hall
   7.1 Introduction 140
   7.2 HRM themes 140
   7.3 Performance management: an organizational phenomenon 140
7.4 HRM and managing performance 143
7.5 Performance management in practice 146
7.6 Performance appraisal 154
7.7 Contemporary issues in managing performance 163
7.8 HRM themes revisited 164
7.9 Conclusion 164
Discussion questions 165

Case study: The HR Scorecard at Portsmouth Hospitals NHS Trust 166

8 Rewarding people at work 168
Stephen Pilbeam
8.1 Introduction 169
8.2 HRM themes 169
8.3 Strategic approaches to reward 170
8.4 Principal pay strategies (1): graded and labour market pay 175
8.5 Principal pay strategies (2): performance-related pay 180
8.6 Contemporary issues in pay and reward 184
8.7 HRM themes revisited 189
8.8 Conclusion 190
Discussion questions 191

Case study: Is PRP appropriate for university lecturers? 191

9 Health, safety, and employee well-being 193
Sarah Gilmore and Steve Williams
9.1 Introduction 194
9.2 HRM themes 194
9.3 The working environment and human resource management 195
9.4 The legal regulation of health and safety at work 200
9.5 Managing health, safety, and employee well-being 204
9.6 HRM themes revisited 210
9.7 Conclusion 211
Discussion questions 212

Case study: The implications of testing for drugs at work 213

10 Employment relations 215
Steve Williams
10.1 Introduction 216
10.2 HRM themes 216
10.3 Managing through joint regulation 217
10.4 Towards cooperation and commitment? 222
10.5 Managing conflict in employment relations 229
10.6 HRM themes revisited 234
10.7 Conclusion 235
Discussion questions 236

Case study: Trade union recognition at Eastney Cleaning Services Ltd 237

11 Equality, diversity, and dignity at work 238
Charlotte Rayner and Sally Rumbles
11.1 Introduction 239
11.2 HRM themes 239
11.3 Key concepts 239
11.4 The legal framework in the UK 244
Part Three: Key Issues in Contemporary Human Resource Management

14 Ethics and human resource management
Richard Christy and Gill Christy
14.1 Introduction 307
14.2 HRM themes 307
14.3 The meaning of ethics 307
14.4 Ethics and organizations 312
14.5 The ethical aspects of HRM activities 316
14.6 HRM themes revisited 323
14.7 Conclusion 323
Discussion questions 324
Case study: Sherron Watkins blows the whistle at Enron 325

15 International human resource management
Steve Williams, Liza Howe-Walsh, Peter Scott, and Emma Brown
15.1 Introduction 328
15.2 HRM themes 328