Land and the Challenge of Sustainable Development in Ethiopia

Conference Proceedings

Edited by
Dessalegn Rahmato
Taye Assefa

Forum for Social Studies
Addis Ababa
Contents

Preface

Dessalegn Rahmato ................................................................. v

Part I
Access to Land and Agrarian Class Differentiation

From Heterogeneity to Homogeneity: Agrarian Class Structure in Ethiopia since the 1950s

Dessalegn Rahmato ................................................................. 3

Rural Women’s Access to Land in Ethiopia

Yigremew Adal ................................................................. 19

Part II
Land Transaction

Recent Experiences in Land Rental Markets in Ethiopia: Impact on Equity, Efficiency and Poverty

Samuel Gebreselassie ................................................................. 43

Land Transaction and Market-Oriented Production: The Case of East Shewa Zone, Ethiopia

Bezabih Emana ................................................................. 83

Part III
Natural Resource Management, Policy, and Economic Return

Towards the Development of Differential Land Taxation in Ethiopia

Daniel Kassahun ................................................................. 103

The Land Issue and Environmental Change in Ethiopia

Tekie Alemu ................................................................. 129

Land Tenure and Technological Improvement in Smallholder Agriculture in Ethiopia

Workneh Negatu ................................................................. 147

Annex 1: Land Tenure Reform and Structural Transformation of the Economy: Country Experiences

Getnet Alemu ................................................................. 167

Annex 2: Welcome and Opening Statements

Dessalegn Rahmato (FSS) ......................................................... 191
Bezabih Emana (AESE) ......................................................... 192
Assefa Admassie (EEA) ......................................................... 194

Annex 3: Conference Programme ............................................ 196