MICROCREDIT
AND WOMEN

By
Dr. M. Lakshmi Narasaiah
M.A., Ph.D.
Professor of Economics
Co-ordinator, Dept. of M.B.A. and Commerce
Special Officer
Sri Krishnadevaraya University Post-graduate Centre
Kurnool-518 002
Andhra Pradesh
(India)
Contents

Preface v

1. Women and Poverty 1
2. Lightening the Load for Women 4
3. Fighting for Equality on All Fronts 8
4. Women in Politics: Breaking Through the Barriers 13
5. Equal Opportunities for Women in the Community 18
6. Promotion of Women 21
7. Empowerment for Women? The Gap Between Theory and Practice 25
8. Population Growth and Women’s Role in India 29
10. Small People’s Banks: The Role of Micro-Enterprise Banks in Development Assistance 43
11. After the Microcredit Summit: How to Implement its Anti-Poverty Strategy 49
12. A Rare and Precious Resource 52
13. Action for Safe Motherhood 56
14. Safe Motherhood is a Human Rights Issue 60
15. An Agenda for Change 63
16. One Battle After Another 67
17. For a Fair Sharing of Time 72
18. Sex and Gender: A World of Difference 76
19. Gender-Based Violence 79
20. Food First 82
21. Aid Effectiveness as a Multi-level Process 87
22. The Status of Saving 95
23. India's Food Challenge 101
24. Consuming the Future 105
26. Development Requires More Ownership 113
27. Peace and Poverty 118

Bibliography 127
Index 145