Jens Alber, Ulrich Kohler

The inequality of electoral participation in Europe and America and the politically integrative functions of the welfare state*

July 2008

Order No.: SP I 2008 - 202
ISSN 1612-3468

Research Area:
Education, Work, and Life Chances

Research Unit:
Inequality and Social Integration

Social Science Research Center Berlin (WZB)
Reichpietschufer 50, 10785 Berlin
http://www.wzb.eu
Contents

1. Contrasting images of political participation in Europe and America: The ideas of a European social model and of American exceptionalism ......................................................... 3

2. Levels of electoral participation in Europe and America ........................................... 6

3. The social inequality of electoral participation ......................................................... 13

   3.1 Voter turnout in different social groups ......................................................... 13

   3.2 The inequality of electoral participation and the inclusiveness of the state ......................................................... 17

   3.3 The inequality of electoral participation among pensioners ......................................................... 22

4. The meaning of non-voting ......................................................................................... 24

5. Conclusions ............................................................................................................... 28

Notes .............................................................................................................................. 29

Bibliography .................................................................................................................. 30