Table of Contents

A Note on Terminology 3

Foreword 13

Introduction 15

Chapter One Beginnings: an Introduction to Export–Import Practice 17

1. Scope of book 17
2. Why export and import? The benefits of international trade 17
   a. Exporting 17
   b. Importing 18
3. The need for a professional approach 19
4. The risks of exporting and importing 19
   a. Transport-related risks 19
   b. Credit risk or non-payment risk 20
   c. Quality of goods risk 20
   d. Exchange rate risk 20
   e. Unforeseen events 20
   f. Legal risks 20
   g. Investment risks 21
5. The role of standard documents and systems 21
6. Cultural and language differences 24
7. Solutions: examples of risk management for export-import 24
8. Typical export transactions 26
   8.1 The case of a documentary sale 26
   8.2 Common variants on the basic export sale 32
   8.3 Other types of international transactions/agreements 33
9. International organizations and chambers of commerce 35
   9.1 Chambers of commerce 35
   9.2 ICC, supplier of tools and standards for international trade 35
   9.3 International organizations 37
10. The multilateral framework for world trade: the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT) and the World Trade Organization (WTO) 39
    a. The GATT and free trade 39
    b. The World Trade Organization (WTO) (Geneva) 40
Chapter Two  The Export-Import Legal Framework

1. Introduction to legal concepts and terminology
   1.1 Different legal systems
   1.2 The value of a precise, written contract
   1.3 Written vs. oral contracts
   1.4 The key contracts related to export transactions
   1.5 Avoiding conflicts between contracts
   1.6 Jurisdiction and choice of law
   1.7 Performance and remedies for breach of contract
   1.8 Practical aspects of performance and breach

2. Contract formation and pre-contractual liability
   2.1 Pre-contractual actions
   2.2 Offers/tenders
   2.3 Acceptance
   2.4 Letters of intent and other preliminary agreements

3. Model or standard contracts in international trade
   3.1 Model or standard form contracts

Chapter Three  Resolving International Business Disputes

Discuss dispute resolution during contract negotiation and drafting

After a dispute arises

1. Working it out – contractual foresight and adaptation clauses
2. Talking it over – waiver, re-negotiation, assistance of an expert and ADR
   2.1 Waiver
   2.2 Re-negotiation
   2.3 Seeking the assistance of an expert
   2.4 DOCDEX
   2.5 ADR

3. The ICC ADR Rules
   3.1 General
   3.2 Commencing ICC ADR proceedings
   3.3 The procedure in ICC ADR proceedings
   3.4 Result of ICC ADR proceedings

4. The ICC Dispute Board Rules

5. International litigation
   5.1 Litigation
   5.2 Where to bring suit: jurisdiction and choice of forum
   5.3 Choice of law and applicable law
   5.4 Enforcement of judgements
6. International commercial arbitration
   6.1 Benefits of international commercial arbitration
   6.2 Potential disadvantages
7. ICC Arbitration
   7.1 Introduction
   7.2 ICC arbitration clause
   7.3 ICC Court and Secretariat
   7.4 The Arbitrator(s)
   7.5 ICC arbitration procedure
8. Other arbitration institutions and rules

Chapter Four International Contracts of Sale and General Conditions
1. The law governing the contract of sale
   The Vienna Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods (CISG)
2. The contract of sale
   2.1 Basic elements
   2.2 Checklist – key clauses in international sales contracts
   2.3 Elements of a sale contract; the ICC Model Contract
3. General conditions of sale (or purchase)
   3.1 The purpose of general conditions of sale (or purchase)
   3.2 The “battle of the forms”: obtaining agreement to general conditions
   3.3 ICC Model General Conditions of Sale, a balanced set of clauses
   3.4 Industry-specific general conditions – UNECE and others
   3.5 Sales contracts online: the way of the future
4. Trade terms for international contracts – Incoterms 2000
   4.1 Introductory
   4.2 The contract of sale and the contract of carriage: Incoterms, liner terms and charter party terms
   4.3 Summary of Incoterms 2000
      The Four Basic Incoterms Groups: “E”-, “F”-, “C”- and “D”-Terms
      Incoterms definitions – the preambles to the 13 current Incoterms
   4.4 Incoterms categories
      The difference between C- and D- terms
   4.5 Division of costs, risks and responsibilities
   4.6 Miscellaneous points
   4.7 Extracts from the Introduction to Incoterms 2000

Guide to Export-Import Basics
Chapter Five  Agency, Distributorship, Franchising and Occasional Intermediary Contracts 123

1. Agency 123
   1.1 Agency and distributorship in the range of possible distribution options 123
   1.2 Choosing between agency and distributorship 125
   1.3 Drafting agency and distributorship contracts 126
   1.4 Legal principles of agency contracts 127
   1.5 Basic duties of agent and principal 129
   1.6 Agency and law/regulation: the case of the European Agency Directive 86/653 of 18 December 1986 130
   1.7 Agency – antitrust rules of the European Union (Article 81 – Regulation n° 2790/1999) 130
   1.8 The ICC Model Commercial Agency Contract (ICC Publication No. 644) 131
   1.9 Key clauses in agency contracts 131

2. Distributorship contracts – the ICC Model Distributorship Contract 139
   2.1 Characteristics of exclusive distributorship contracts 139
   2.2 Key clauses in distributorship agreements 140
   2.3 EU competition law 141

3. ICC Short Form Model Contracts – International Commercial Agency/International Distributorship 142

4. International franchising 143
   4.1 Introduction 143
   4.2 Different types of franchises and franchising structures 144
   4.3 The ICC Model International Franchising Contract 145

5. The ICC Model Occasional Intermediary Contract (Non-circumvention and non-disclosure agreement) 146

Chapter Six  International Payment Options 149

1. Overview of payment, finance and security for international transactions 150

2. Credit management and export credit insurance 151
   2.1 Credit management 151
   2.2 Export credit insurance (or "trade credit insurance") 154

3. Documentary sales and payment: shipping documents 154
   3.1 The key documents 154

4. Method of operation of the basic payment mechanisms 164
   4.1 Payment on Open Account 164
   4.2 Payment in Advance 165
   4.3 Collection – Documentary Collection/Clean Collection 165

5. Documentary credits (letters of credit): An in-depth look 167
   5.1 Introduction 167
5.2 Rules for letters of credit: the UCP 600 168
5.3 Basic Concepts and Terminology 170
5.4 Example: procedure for an irrevocable confirmed credit 173
5.5 The two fundamental principles of documentary credit practice 178
5.6 Checklist: Recommendations for Letter of Credit Practice 183

6. The electronic supplement to UCP 600 (eUCP) 185
   6.1 History 185
   6.2 “Presentation”, not “issuance” 185
   6.3 “Part- or all- electronic presentations” 185
   6.4 Specific incorporation of the eUCP 185
   6.5 Other key issues 186
   6.6 Major elements of the eUCP 187

7. International Standby Practices (ISP98) 188
   7.1 History 188
   7.2 Reasons for developing ISP98 188
   7.3 Incorporating ISP98 189
   7.4 Improvements over UCP provisions 189
   7.5 Major elements of ISP98 190

8. Managing currency and exchange rate risks 191
   8.1 Transaction risk 192
   8.2 Translation risk (also known as balance sheet exposure) 193
   8.3 Economic risk 193

Chapter Seven  Short-term Trade Finance: Factoring and Forfaiting 195

1. Pre-financing and collection of receivables: The various options 195
2. Factoring: the major features 197
   2.1 Definition 197
   2.2 Market scope 198
   2.3 Factoring in practice 199
   2.4 Advantages and disadvantages 202
3. Forfaiting: an in-depth look 203
   3.1 Definition 203
   3.2 Market scope 205
   3.3 Forfaiting in practice 206
   3.4 Advantages of forfaiting 208
   3.5 Forfaiting rules and guidelines 208
   3.6 Forfaiting and the risk of money laundering 209
Chapter Eight  Security for International Transactions

1. Guarantees and bonds
   1.1 Introduction
   1.2 ICC rules
   1.3 Worldwide acceptance of demand guarantee rules
   1.4 Guarantee/bond terminology
   1.5 The parties
   1.6 Types of guarantee/bond
   1.7 Main uses of guarantees
   1.8 Demand guarantee operation and procedure – direct vs. indirect

2. Export Credit (Trade Credit) Insurance
   2.1 Introduction
   2.2 Basic form and content of the insurance protection
   2.3 Discretionary limits
   2.4 Credit information
   2.5 Length of credit term/Maximum credit term
   2.6 Maximum extension period
   2.7 Collection of insured debts

Chapter Nine  International Transport

1. Transport management
   a. The fundamental cost principle: volume discounts
   b. Transport costs’ impact on the price of goods
   c. Speed of delivery
   d. Stock and inventory management
   e. Packaging
   f. Customs
   g. Payment systems
   h. Collaboration vs. competition

2. International treaties and conventions
   a. Sea transport
   b. Air transport
   c. Rail transport
   d. Road transport
   e. Multimodal transport

3. The UNCTAD/ICC Rules for Multimodal Transport Documents

4. Carrier’s liability

5. Charter parties
   a. Introductory
   b. Distinction between bill of lading and charter party
   c. Incorporating the terms of the charter party into the B/L; arbitration clauses
6. Freight forwarders
6.1 Introductory
6.2 Different functions and types of forwarders
7. Shipping documents
7.1 Miscellaneous documents
7.2 The bill of lading
8. Sea transport
8.1 Overview of basic commercial practice
8.2 Sea freight
9. Containerized and multimodal transport
9.1 Containers and Incoterms
9.2 Overview of basic commercial procedure
10. Air transport
10.1 Introductory
10.2 Overview of air transport procedures
11. Road and rail transport
11.1 Road haulage
11.2 Rail transport
12. Cargo insurance
a. Duty to insure vs. commercial need to insure
b. Splitting of insurance cover according to division of risk
c. Insurable interest
d. "Open" cover or "floating" policies
e. Cost of insurance
f. Incoterms and insurance
13. Customs
a. Amount of duty
b. Country of origin
c. Bonded warehouses

Chapter 10 Information and Communication Technologies and International Trade
1. ICTs, the Internet and international trade transactions
1.1 ICTs & the Internet: how the supply chain has been transformed
1.2 Electronic contracting
1.3 Electronic signatures, authentication and digital identity management
1.4 Information compliance issues
2. Protection, transfer and management of information in international electronic transactions
Data protection and privacy issues and regimes
3. Telecoms infrastructure and services issues 266
   3.1 Telecommunications liberalization 266
   3.2 Multilateral trade negotiations: telecommunications and e-business 268
   3.3 Broadband deployment 268
   3.4 Voice over Internet Protocol (VoIP) 270
   3.5 Storage of traffic data for law enforcement purposes 270
4. Technical coordination and management of the Internet 271
   4.1 Internet Protocol Version 6 271
   4.2 Internationalized Domain Names (IDNs) 272
5. Policy-shaping forums, initiatives and approaches 273
   5.2 Business Action to Support the Information Society (BASIS, an ICC initiative) 274
   5.3 Internet Governance Forum (IGF) 274
   5.4 The UN Global Alliance for Information and Communication Technologies and Development (GAID) 275
   5.5 Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) 275
   5.6 Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation 276

Glossary 277

Index 313