101 Tough Conversations to Have with Employees

A Manager's Guide to Addressing Performance, Conduct, and Discipline Challenges

Paul Falcone
Contents

Preface xi
Acknowledgments xv
Introduction: The Rules of Engagement 1

PART I: Uncomfortable Workplace Situations

1. Common Managerial and Supervisory Discussions 9
  Scenario 1: Mediating Disputes Among Subordinates 9
  Scenario 2: Appropriate Responses to Requests to Speak "Off the Record" 13
  Scenario 3: Promoting a Neophyte into a First-Time Supervisory Role 15
  Scenario 4: New Supervisor Syndrome 18
  Scenario 5: Inheriting an Employee with Disciplinary Problems 20
  Scenario 6: Stopping Attitude Problems in Their Tracks 23
  Scenario 7: Advice Before a Holiday Party or an Offsite Event 24

2. Individual Appearance and Uncomfortable Workplace Dilemmas 28
  Scenario 8: Bad Hair Days 29
  Scenario 9: Inappropriate Dress 32
  Scenario 10: Body Piercing and Body Art 33
PART II: Poor Work Habits and Job Performance Concerns

4. Performance Transgressions

Scenario 22: Lack of Quality, Detail, or Efficiency 64
Scenario 23: Lack of Quantity or Speed 66
Scenario 24: Substandard Customer Satisfaction 69
Scenario 25: Lack of Sales Production 71
Scenario 26: Failure to Learn New Material During Training 73
Scenario 27: Acts Resulting in a Loss to the Employer 76
Scenario 28: Failure to Follow Through, or "Dropping the Ball" 78

5. Policy and Procedure Violations

Scenario 29: Failure to Adhere to Safety Rules 82
Scenario 30: Excessive Personal Telephone Calls 84
Scenario 31: Excessive Time Spent on the Internet 86
Scenario 32: Unauthorized Use of Company Equipment and Facilities 89
Scenario 33: Working Unauthorized Overtime 91
Scenario 34: Off-Duty Conduct and Moonlighting 94
6. Excessive Absenteeism and Tardiness

Scenario 35: Excessive Unscheduled Absence: "No Fault" System 103
Scenario 36: Excessive Unscheduled Absence: "Excuse-Based" System 105
Scenario 37: Patterning Excessive, Unscheduled Absence Around Weekends 107
Scenario 38: Rolling Calendar Year Maneuvers 108
Scenario 39: Excessive Tardiness 110
Scenario 40: Exempt Employees Who Choose to Come and Go as They Please 112

7. Lack of Requisite Skills

Scenario 41: Inferior Job Knowledge 116
Scenario 42: Lack of Technical Skills 118
Scenario 43: Inadequate Problem-Solving Skills 121
Scenario 44: Substandard Written Expression 123
Scenario 45: Poor Time Management 125
Scenario 46: Lack of Organization and Neatness 128

PART III: Inappropriate Workplace Behavior and Conduct

8. Sexually Offensive Behavior

Scenario 47: Foul Language in the Workplace 136
Scenario 48: E-Mail Misuse 139
Scenario 49: Finding Pornography on an Employee's Computer 142
Scenario 50: Bullying 144
Scenario 51: Discriminatory Comments or Racial Epithets 147
Scenario 52: Leering 149
Scenario 53: Sexual Harassment Findings (Reverse Harassment) 152

9. Substandard Communication Skills

Scenario 54: Tattletales, Gossipmongers, and Snitches 158
Scenario 55: Whiners and Complainers 161
Scenario 56: Requests for Confidential Conversations from Other Supervisors' Subordinates 163
10. Personal Style Issues

Scenario 60: Suspected Alcoholism or Substance Abuse 174
Scenario 61: Inability to Accept Constructive Criticism 179
Scenario 62: Lack of Sensitivity and Protocol (E-Mail Censuring) 181
Scenario 63: Badgering and Challenging One’s Supervisor 183
Scenario 64: Lack of Teamwork and Relationship-Building Skills 186
Scenario 65: Laziness and Lack of Commitment 188
Scenario 66: Blamers and Excuse Makers 191
Scenario 67: Coworker Jealousy and Employees Who Can’t Let Go of Their Anger 193
Scenario 68: Supremacists—Arrogance and Superior Attitudes 194

11. Leadership Style Challenges and Career Management Obstacles

Scenario 69: Stalled Career Syndrome 198
Scenario 70: Unwillingness to Confront Problems Head-On 201
Scenario 71: Staff Motivation Conversations 204
Scenario 72: Protecting Your Company from Legal Liability (Documentation) 207
Scenario 73: Inability to Provide Constructive Criticism 210
Scenario 74: Handling Group Complaints Wisely 212
Scenario 75: Lack of Diversity Awareness 216
Scenario 76: Lack of Leadership 218

PART IV: Corporate Actions

12. Corporate (Intentional) Actions

Scenario 77: Probationary Termination 226
Scenario 78: Administering Disciplinary Warnings 229
Scenario 79: Administering Decision-Making Leaves 231
Scenario 80: Termination for Cause (in Conjunction with Progressive Discipline) 235
Scenario 81:  Convincing an Employee to Leave Voluntarily When There Are No Progressive Disciplinary Warnings on File  237
Scenario 82:  Negotiating a Separation Package When There Are No Progressive Disciplinary Warnings on File  240

13. Corporate ("No Fault") Actions

Scenario 83:  Layoff: Position Elimination—LIFO  245
Scenario 84:  Layoff: Position Elimination—Lack of Qualifications  247
Scenario 85:  Layoff: Position Elimination—Union Bumping Privileges  250
Scenario 86:  Layoff: Position Elimination—Department Closure  254
Scenario 87:  Layoff: Position Elimination—Plant Closure (WARN Act)  256
Scenario 88:  Follow-Up Discussions with Survivors After Layoffs Occur  258

14. Summary Offenses (Immediate Discharge)

Scenario 89:  Employee Theft  263
Scenario 90:  Selling Proprietary Products on the Internet  265
Scenario 91:  Time Card Fraud  268
Scenario 92:  Threats of Violence in the Workplace  269
Scenario 93:  Sexual Harassment  271
Scenario 94:  Falsification of Company Records  274
Scenario 95:  Insubordination  276

15. Special Circumstances

Scenario 96:  Welcoming Back Employees Returning from a Stress Leave of Absence  281
Scenario 97:  Dealing with Employees in Crisis: Isolation  285
Scenario 98:  Dealing with Employees in Crisis: Suicidal Concerns  288
Scenario 99:  Dealing with Employees in Crisis: Homicidal Concerns  290
Scenario 100:  Terminating Employees Who Are on Investigatory Leave  292
Scenario 101:  Verbally Accepting an Employee’s Resignation  295

Index  299