

BANKRUPT

Global Lawmaking and Systemic Financial Crisis

Terence C. Halliday
and Bruce G. Carruthers

Stanford University Press
Stanford, California

Table of Contents

List of Figures and Tables	ix
Preface	xi
Acknowledgments	xxv
Introduction: The Recursivity of Law
1 The Legal Constitution of Markets	1
Part I: International Organizations
2 Managing Corporate Breakdowns Across National Frontiers	38
3 Constructing Global Norms for National Insolvency Systems	70
4 Attaining the Global Standard	122
Terence C. Halliday, Susan Block-Lieb, and Bruce G. Carruthers
Part II: States
5 Indonesia: The IMF as a Reformist Ally	166
6 Korea: Legal Restructuring of the Market and State	211
7 China: Global Norms with "Chinese Characteristics"	247
Part III: Processes
8 Intermediation	293
9 Foiling	337
10 Recursivity	363
Conclusion: Globalization and Its Limits
11 The Implementation Gap	400
Notes	429
References	463
Index	481