The Influence of IAS/IFRS on the CCCTB, Tax Accounting, Disclosure and Corporate Law Accounting Concepts

‘A Clash of Cultures’

Edited by

Peter Essers
Theo Raaijmakers
Ronald Russo
Pieter van der Schee
Leo van der Tas
Peter van der Zanden
Table of Contents

Preface xi
About the Authors and Editors xiii
List of Abbreviations xv
General Introduction xvii

Chapter 1
The International Financial Reporting Standards 1
Prof. Dr Leo van der Tas and Prof. Dr Peter van der Zanden

1 Introduction 1
2 Background to IFRS 2
   2.1 The Rationale for International Financial Reporting Standards 2
   2.2 National Influences on the International Standards 3
   2.3 IASC Gains Momentum 5
   2.4 Restructuring the IASC to the IASB 6
   2.5 Relevance of IFRS 8
   2.6 The EU Position 8
   2.7 The IASBs Due Process 10
3 Principles Underlying IAS/IFRS 11
   3.1 General 11
   3.2 The Objectives of Financial Statements 12
   3.3 The Underlying Assumptions 12
   3.4 The Qualitative Characteristics 13
   3.5 The Elements of Financial Statements 15
   3.6 Recognition/Derecognition 18
Table of Contents

3.7 Measurement 19
3.8 Disclosure 20
3.9 Principles-Based Standards 20
4 IFRS for Non-listed Companies 21
5 Concluding Remarks 22
Appendix 1: Standards and Interpretations in force as of 31 December 2007 24
Appendix 2: IASB Work Plan as of 31 December 2007 26

Chapter 2
The Precious Relationship between IAS/IFRS, National Tax Accounting Systems and the CCCTB 29
Prof. Dr Peter Essers and Dr Ronald Russo

1 Introduction 29
2 The Relationship between Tax Accounting and Financial Accounting 31
  2.1 General 31
  2.2 Germany: Practically Formal Dependence 33
  2.3 The United Kingdom: Material Dependence 34
  2.4 The Netherlands: Material Independence 35
  2.5 United States: Material Independence 36
  2.6 Influences of the Continental and Anglo-Saxon Accounting Approach 37
3 Future Trends: More Alignment between the Different Systems in Member States 38
4 Councils for Tax Accounting Issues in Member States 43
5 An Interactive Dynamic Concept of Fiscal Profit 44
6 Threats and Challenges to the CCCTB 46
7 Testing the Concept of Taking IAS/IFRS as a Starting Point for an Interactive Dynamic Concept of Fiscal Profit for the CCCTB with Respect to Different Categories of Assets 52
  7.1 Introduction 52
  7.2 Material Fixed Assets (Excluding Real Estate) 53
    7.2.1 IAS 16 and 41 53
    7.2.2 Consequences for Tax Accounting 55
    7.2.3 Technical Outline CCCTB 56
    7.2.4 Conclusion 58
  7.3 Inventories and Work in Progress 59
    7.3.1 IAS 2 and 11 59
    7.3.2 Consequences for Tax Accounting 60
    7.3.3 Technical Outline CCCTB 61
    7.3.4 Conclusion 61
  7.4 Financial Assets (not including Interests in Participations) 62
    7.4.1 IAS 32 and 39 62
    7.4.2 Consequences for Tax Accounting 64
Table of Contents

7.4.3 Technical Outline CCCTB 64
7.4.4 Conclusion 65
7.5 Intangibles (including Goodwill) 65
7.5.1 IAS 38 and IFRS 3 65
7.5.2 Consequences for Tax Accounting 67
7.5.3 Technical Outline CCCTB 68
7.5.4 Conclusion 69
7.6 Real Estate 69
7.6.1 IAS 16 and 40 69
7.6.2 Consequences for Tax Accounting 70
7.6.3 Technical Outline CCCTB 70
7.6.4 Conclusion 71
8 Testing the Concept of Taking IAS/IFRS as a Starting Point for an Interactive Dynamic Concept of Fiscal Profit for the CCCTB with Respect to Provisions and Liabilities 71
8.1 Provisions and Liabilities in IAS 37 71
8.2 Consequences for CCCTB Tax Accounting 74
8.3 Technical Outline CCCTB 77
8.4 Special Provisions and Asset Replacement Reserves 79
8.4.1 Provisions for Bad Debts 79
8.4.2 Pension Provisions 80
8.4.3 Asset Replacement Reserves 81
9 General Conclusions 81

Chapter 3
Disclosure and Accounting for Issuers in between ‘Federal’ EU Securities Law (and Mandatory Application of IFRS) and National Corporate Law Accounting Concepts 87
Prof. Dr Theo Raaijmakers and Pieter van der Schee LLM

Abstract 87
1 Emerging EU Securities Regulation: Introductory Notes 89
1.1 Financial Services Action Plan and Resulting EU Securities Regulation 89
1.2 Simultaneous National Use of Disclosure as a Regulatory Tool 90
1.3 Post-Enron Regulatory Responses 91
1.4 Additional Reporting Items for Issuers (Corporate Governance) 92
1.5 Enforcement 93
2 The Regulatory Concepts and Function of Disclosure and ‘Accounting’ 94
2.1 Disclosure 95
2.1.1 Price Function Disclosure 95
2.1.2 Agency Function Disclosure 96
Table of Contents

2.1.3 Regulatory Use Disclosure .......................... 98
2.1.4 Corporate Disclosure .............................. 98

2.2 Accounting ........................................... 99

3 EU Corporate Accounting and Disclosure Rules
(First, Fourth, Seventh and Eleventh Directives) ........ 100
3.1 EU Corporate Accounting Rules ....................... 101
3.2 EU Corporate Disclosure .............................. 102
3.3 EU Institutional Corporate Disclosure Design ....... 103

4 Investor Protection and Market Regulation in the Perspective of Securities Law: The US and EU Model ................. 105
4.1 The US Securities Law Disclosure System .......... 105
4.1.1 Transactional Disclosure .......................... 106
4.1.2 Periodic (Continuous) Disclosure ................ 107
4.1.3 Financial Reporting, Internal Control and Audit ... 109
4.1.4 Annual Report (Form 10-K and 20-F) ............ 109
4.2 The New EU Securities Law Disclosure Rules for EU Issuers .... 110
4.2.1 Initial Disclosure .................................. 111
4.2.2 Continuous Disclosure (Annual Financial Report) ... 112
4.2.3 The Annual Financial Report ...................... 113

5 Issuers ‘Annual Financial Report’ as Market Oriented Disclosure
Confronted with ‘Corporate Accounting’ Rules ........ 115
5.1 Drafting, Approval, Adoption and Disclosure of Annual Accounts .... 116
5.1.1 Adoption of the Accounts .......................... 118
5.1.2 Changes of ‘Draft’ Accounts by the AGM? ....... 119
5.1.3 Material Events after Disclosure of the Annual Financial Report .... 120
5.1.4 Securities Law Disclosure and Corporate Law Publication ... 120
5.2 The Management Report (US and EU) as Part of the Disclosure Document .... 121
5.2.1 MR: Format ....................................... 122
5.2.2 Reporting Items for Non Executive Directors and Responsibility for the Report ... 124
5.3 Governance Influx ................................... 125

6 Public Oversight on Annual Financial Accounts and Reports 126
6.1 Public Oversight/enforcement in the US ............ 127
6.2 Public Oversight in the EU ........................... 128
6.2.1 Restatements ..................................... 129
6.2.2 Restatement of the Annual Accounts/Report .... 130
6.2.3 Restatement and Liability ......................... 131
6.3 Correction of the Management Report/Corporate Governance Statement .... 131
6.4 Federal Oversight in the EU: Need for a European SEC? .... 132
Table of Contents

7 Private Enforcement of Securities Law Rules by Investors and Other Interested Parties 133

7.1 Private Enforcement of Continuous Disclosure (Annual Financial Report) in the EU 135

7.2 Prospectus Liability 136

7.3 Liability for Misleading Information/Continuous Disclosure 137

7.4 The Flip Side of the Approval and Disclosure of the Annual Financial Report as the Key Disclosure Under the New EU Securities Regulation: Discharge and Business Judgement 138

7.5 Private Enforcement and the Corporate Procedure of Finalization of the Annual Financial Report/Accounts and Restatements 140

8 Summary 141

Epilogue 145

Appendix A

Common Consolidated Corporate Tax Base Working Group (CCCTB WG) 153

Appendix B

International Accounting Standard IAS 16 (REVISED 1998) 167

Appendix C

International Accounting Standard IAS 37 183

Bibliography 205

Index 211