

Enhancing the Effectiveness of Innovation

New Roles for Key Players

---

Edited by

Willem Molle

*Professor of International Economics, Erasmus University
Rotterdam and Senior Adviser of ECORYS Research and Consulting, Rotterdam, the Netherlands*

Julia Djarova

Vice Chair of ECORYS International

Edward Elgar

Cheltenham, UK • Northampton, MA, USA

Contents

---

List of contributors	vii
1 Introduction Willem Molle and Julia Djarova	1
PART I R&D
2 Creating wealth from university know-how: the role of technostarters Hans Wissema	31
3 Assessing the impact of centres of excellence on business innovation: the Flemish case Arnold Verbeek, Elissavet Lykogianni, Valentijn Bilsen, Veerle Minne and Geert Steurs	60
4 The geography of transfer of university knowledge to firms: the case of Southern England Adrian Healy	85
PART II FIRMS
5 ICT and firm innovation in European 'catching-up' countries Jacob Dencik and Julia Djarova	111
6 The behavioural additionality of business R&D subsidies: theoretical considerations and empirical results for Flanders Geert Steurs, Arnold Verbeek and Elissavet Lykogianni	137
PART III PUBLIC SECTOR
7 European innovation policy: increased effectiveness through coordination with cohesion policy Willem Molle	167

8	National governance systems for innovation: high-level coordination leads to increased effectiveness Julia Djarova and Walter Zegveld	201
9	Regional innovative potential and development strategies: the case of Poland Marta Mackiewicz, Robert Pollock and Paulina Fabrowska	229
	Index	253