Capitalism, Institutions, and Economic Development

Michael G. Heller
Contents

Preface xvi

1 Institutional capitalism 1

One capitalism, not many 3
Impersonal order 8
The institutional system 14
Institutional domains 17
Interactive subsystems 21
The precapitalist state 25
Informality or formality? 28
Looking ahead 33

2 The modern state 36

Weberian theory 37
Parametric state 40
State and economy 43
Formality of state 45
Ideal procedural norms 48
Legal regulatory function 51
Service function 55
Representational function 58
Dysfunctions of state closure 63
Representational dysfunction 67
Constrained state effectiveness 70
Separation of powers 77
State, law, and politics 80
xvi Contents

3 Law and economy

Proto-institutional ethic 84
Evolution of norms 88
Enforcement of rules 91
Property and contract 94
Economic reasons of law 100
Transitional law 104
Economy, law, and politics 108

4 Development in disequilibrium

A typology of change 112
Institutions: made or grown? 114
Schumpeter's innovation 120
Institutional innovation 131
Equilibrium routines 133
Disequilibrium transitions 137
Disequilibrium routines 148

5 Carriers of change

Free to choose? 156
Transcending culture 161
The power of ideology 167
Intellectual resistance 173
Switching tracks 178
Rational choices 186
Constructive ideology 195

6 Models of crisis

Development crises 200
Activist transition 205
A critique of neoactivism 214
Neoliberal transition 223
Lessons of neoliberalism 236

7 The transition sequence

Policy priorities 240
A crisis-induced sequence 247
Putting law first 251
Building the service state 260
8 Making the change

Bibliography 289
Index 299