Gender Impacts of Revenue Collection in Uganda

Nite Tanzarn

COMMONWEALTH SECRETARIAT
Contents

Foreword v

Acronyms and abbreviations vii

1 Introduction 1
   Background 1
   Objectives, approach and structure of the study 2
   Limitations to the study 4

2 Revenue Generation Policy and Institutional Framework 5
   Historical background 5
   Macro context 6
   Revenue generation structure 8
   Revenue generation laws and policies 12

3 Mapping the Gendered Terrain 14
   Gender and work 14
   Gendered distribution of resources 15
   Decision-making, production and consumption patterns 16

4 How Revenue Generation Affects Women and Men 18
   Women's and men's revenue burden 18
   Direct tax: the case of income tax 20
   Indirect tax: the case of value added tax 20
   Indirect non-tax revenue: the case of Wakiso local government 21
   Cost sharing/user fees 22
   Gender analysis of the Budget Speech 2007/08 23

5 Perspectives of Women and Men on Revenue Generation Policies 26
   Value for money 26
   Efficiency of the revenue system 27
   Fairness of the revenue system 29

6 Conclusions and Recommendations 33
   Conclusions 33
   Recommendations 34
Documents Consulted

Interviews and Focus Groups

Notes

About the Author

Boxes
2.1. Revenue generators 6
2.2. Gender bias in the G-tax 10
3.1. Community perspectives on consumption and decision-making 17
4.1. Gender impact of user fees 23
5.1. Key informants' perceptions of value for taxes paid 27
5.2. Key informants' perceptions of the efficiency of the revenue system 28
5.3. Key informants' perceptions of the fairness of revenue generation 30
5.4. Perceived impact of the suspension of the G-tax 31

Figures
2.1. Institutional structure for revenue generation 11
5.1. Key informants' perceptions of the efficiency of the revenue system 28
5.2. Key informants' perceptions of the fairness of revenue generation 30

Tables
3.1. Gendered distribution of work by occupation 15
4.1. Overview of women's and men's revenue burden by tax head 19
4.2. Tax burden by sex, Iganga District local government staff 20
4.3 Projected contributions of different revenue sources, Wakiso District 21