Politics Triumphs Economics?

Political Economy and the Implementation of Competition Law and Economic Regulation in Developing Countries

Editors

PRADEEP S. MEHTA  ®  SIMON 3. EVENETT
CONTENTS

List of Tables and Annexures .................................................. 7
Acknowledgements ................................................................. 9
Editors/Contributors' ............................................................. 11
Foreword .............................................................................. 13
Preface ................................................................................. 17

1. Introduction
   PRADEE P. S. MEHTA and SIMON J. EVENETT ......................... 23

2. Tackling the "Tyranny of Vested Interests":
   Competition Policy as Political Governance
   MAX EVEREST-PHILLIPS ..................................................... 43

3. Strategic Priorities of Competition and
   Regulatory Agencies in Developing Countries
   VALENTINA ZOGHBI .......................................................... 89

4. Technical Assistance for Law and Economics:
   An Empirical Analysis in Antitrust/Competition Policy
   MICHAEL W. NICHOLSON, D. DANIEL SOKOL and
   KYLE W. STIEGERT ......................................................... 211

5. Does Regulation and Institutional Design
   Matter for Infrastructure Sector Performance?
   LUIS ANDRES, JOSE LUIS GUASCH and
   STEPHANE STRAUB ......................................................... 233
6. Aspects of the Independence of Regulatory Agencies and Competition Advocacy
GESNER OCIVEIRA, EDUARDO LUIZ MACHADO and LUCAS MARTINS NOVAES ................................. 285

7. Competition and Regulatory Institutional Structures in Micro-states "The Case of the Caribbean"
CEZLEY SAMPSON and FAYE SAMPSON ................................. 327

8. Regulatory Challenges in Electricity Markets in India
DEVENDRA G. KODWANI ............................................. 361

9. Identifying and Overcoming Political Economy and Governance Constraints to the Effective Implementation of Competition and Regulatory Law: The Case of Zambia
THULA KAIRA ......................................................... 403

10. Regulation, Corporate Governance and the Banking Sector: The Case of Bangladesh
THANKOM ARUN and MASRUR REAZ .............................. 451