Servitude with a Smile:
An Anti-Oppression Analysis of Emotional Labour

Patricia Chong
TABLE OF CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION

1. ANTI-OppRESSION FRAMEWORK
   1.1 The Wrong Name
   1.2 In Search of the Right Name

2. CONTEXT: THE EMOTIONAL PROLETARIAT
   2.1 What Is Emotional Labour?
   2.2 Economic Context

3. MOLOTOV COCKTAILS OR DUDS? LITERATURE REVIEW

4. THE UNIVERSAL BODY AT WORK?
   GENDERED ORGANIZATIONAL THEORY APPLIED
   4.1 Critique
   4.2 Gendered Organizational Theory: Unmasking Oppression
   4.3 Emotional Labour as Self-Definition

5. ECONOMIC APARTHEID: INSTITUTIONAL RACISM IN CANADA
   5.1 Recognizing Institutional Racism: Unmasking Oppression

6. TRAINED GORILLAS AT WORK:
   LABOUR PROCESS THEORY APPLIED
   6.1 Labour Process Theory: Unmasking Oppression

7. MORAL REGULATION AND CAPITALIST PRODUCTION
   7.1 Gender Governance Orders and Multiple Masculinities and Femininities
   7.2 Moral Regulation: Unmasking Oppression

8. TRADE UNION PERSPECTIVES
   8.1 Sex, Race and Sacrifice: Union Organizing
   8.2 Less Talk, More Trade Union Action

9. CONCLUSION

REFERENCES

---