Central Banks in the Age of the Euro

Europeanization, Convergence, and Power

Edited by Kenneth Dyson and Martin Marcussen
Contents

List of Figures
List of Tables
Abbreviations
Notes on Contributors

   Kenneth Dyson

Part I  The Changing Context of Central Banking

2. Differentiation in the European System of Central Banks: Circles, Core, and Directoire
   Gaby Umbach and Wolfgang Wessels

3. The European Central Bank: The Bank That Rules Europe?
   David Howarth

Part II  Eurosystem 'Insider' Central Banks

4. National Banks of Belgium and the Netherlands: Happy with the Euro
   Ivo Maes and Amy Verdun

5. Bank of France: The Challenge of Escaping Politicization
   David Howarth

6. German Bundesbank: Europeanization and the Paradoxes of Power
   Kenneth Dyson

7. Bank of Greece: Latecomer, Uphill Adjustment
   George Pagoulatos
Contents

8. The Banca d'Italia: Between Europeanization and Globalization
   Lucia Quaglia 183

Part III 'Temporary' Outsiders: Pace Setters and Laggards

   Béla Greskovits 203

10. Czech Republic and Poland: The Limits of Europeanization
    Rachel Epstein and Juliet Johnson 221

Part IV 'Semi-Permanent' Outsiders

    Charles Goodhart 241

12. Denmark and Sweden: Networking by Euro-Outsiders
    Martin Marcussen 263

Part V Lessons from Non-European Central Banks

13. The Political Economy of Central Banking in Australia and New Zealand
    Chris Eichbaum 287

14. The US Federal Reserve and the Politics of Monetary and Financial Regulatory Policies
    John T. Woolley 307

Part VI Convergence and Divergence

15. Financial Supervision: Internationalization, Europeanization, and Power
    Michael Moran and Huw Macartney 337

16. Monetary Policy Strategies
    Iain Begg 355

17. Scientization of Central Banking: The Politics of A-Politicization
    Martin Marcussen 373

18. Transparency and Accountability
    Nicolas Jabko 391

References 407
Index 435