Endogenous Livestock Development in Cameroon
Exploring the potential of local initiatives for livestock development

Authors
Katrien van't Hooft, ETC/Compas, The Netherlands
David Millar, CECIK, Ghana
Ellen Geerlings, consultant with FAO, Rome
Sali Django, Mboscuda, Cameroon

Producers DVD
Marieke Hendrix
Roy Keijzer, Agromisa

Layout and editing
Marijke Kreikamp, ETC/Compas
Sara van Otterloo

Thanks go to the following people for their support
All workshop participants
Henry Njakoii, Janek Akob and Precilla Mosoke from Heifer Cameroon
Hanneke Mertens
All those who helped to dub of the film in French, Portuguese and Spanish

Financial support
CTA (Technical Centre for Agricultural and Rural Cooperation)
HIVOS/Biodiversity Fund
Heifer Netherlands, Cameroon and USA
Agromisa
ETC Foundation/Compas
ELD Network

Book and DVD can be ordered at Agromisa Foundation
P.O. Box 41, 6700 AA Wageningen, The Netherlands
tel.: +31 317 412217
www.agromisa.org
Contents

1. Introducing Endogenous Livestock Development (ELD) 9
   What is Endogenous Livestock Development? 9
   Different livestock keeping systems 11
   Trends and premises in formal livestock development, education and research 14
   The ELD network 16

2. Livestock development and African worldviews 19
   Belief systems in sub-Saharan Africa 19
   Wealth or money? 20
   Human - animal relationships 21
   African worldviews - combining the old and new 22
   Current challenges in livestock development 23

3. Examples of ELD practice in Africa 25

4. The ELD workshop in Yaounde, Cameroon 31
   Preparation 32
   Workshop programme and outcome 33
   Evaluation of the workshop 37

5. Nine months later: ELD in practice 41
   Preparations for film visit 41
   General conclusions 41
   Role of animals 42
   Perception of development 43
   Perception of ELD 44
   Attitude change 45
   Practical action 47
   Influence of religion, education and ethnic background 48
   Approach of support organisations 50
   Ways of promoting ELD 54

Annex 1 List of participants in ELD workshop Cameroon 55
Annex 2 Suggestions for using the film in training sessions 56
Annex 3 Literature and websites 58
Annex 4 Contact ELD coordinators and advisory group 60
Annex 5 Join the ELD network 62