

300 837 478 U
KLUWER LAW INTERNATIONAL

European Economic Law

SECOND EDITION

by

Alberto Santa Maria

Wolters Kluwer

Law & Business

AUSTIN

BOSTON

CHICAGO

NEW YORK

THE NETHERLANDS

Table of Contents

Foreword to the Second Edition	xi
Introduction	xiii
Chapter I
Companies' Right of Establishment and Freedom to Provide Services: Mutual Recognition of Eligible Companies	1
1. The Treaty of Rome and Private International Law on Companies	2
2. The Brussels Convention of 29 February 1968 on the Mutual Recognition of Companies and Bodies Corporate within the EEC	9
3. General Considerations about the 'Recognition' of Foreign Companies: A Historical Overview	12
4. The Double Meaning of 'Recognition' as Applied to Companies	24
5. The Import of Clauses in Establishment Treaties and Friendship, Commerce and Navigation Treaties	28
6. The Treatment of Foreign Companies within the Community: Article 12 and Articles 43 et seq., 49 et seq. and 56 et seq. EC	31
7. The Principle of the Direct Applicability of the Rules of the Treaty on Establishment and Services	38
8. The Notion of Companies' Freedom of Establishment within the European Union	41
9. The Scope of a Company's Right of Establishment	44
10. Private International Law on Companies and the Establishment Rules	46
11. Critical Remarks on the Daily Mail judgment	52
12. Case-Law on Cross-Border Mergers and Its Impact on the Transfer of Seat within the European Union: Directive 2005/56/CE	57

13. The above Principles as Applied in Practice	64
14. The 'National' Treatment: Scope and Limits under Community Case-Law	66
15. The Impact of Article 43 et seq. of the Treaty on: (a) the Italian Rules of Private International Law in Regard to Companies	71
16. More: (b) Mandatory Rules of Italian Law When Companies Formed in Other Member States Set Up Branches in Italy	76
17. More: (c) Applicability of Legislative Decree 231/2001 to 'Community' Foreign Companies	79
18. More: (d) Mandatory Rules of Italian Law Relating to Multinational Groups of Companies	89
19. More: (e) The Rules Applicable to Listed Companies	98
20. Jurisdiction Criteria Relating to Companies in the EC Regulation on Jurisdiction and the Recognition of Foreign Judgments	102
21. EC Regulation No. 1346/2000 on Insolvency Proceedings	106

Chapter II

Harmonization of Company Law within the EU	115
1. Conflict of Laws and Uniformity: Two Techniques Compared	115
2. General Considerations about the Harmonization of Company Law in the European Union	120
3. Legal Basis of Company Directives	126
4. The Value of Harmonization Directives: The Direct Applicability Issue	129
5. Company Directives and Community Developments: Interpretational Issues	139
6. The Commission's Current Activity in Codifying the Matter	147
7. Directives Concerning General Rules of Member States' Company Laws	149
8. Mergers of Companies Governed by the Laws of Different Member States	157
9. The Draft Directive on Groups of Undertakings and the Seventh Directive on Consolidated Accounts	162
10. The Eleventh Directive	166
11. The Statute for the European Company	167
12. The Regulation on the European Economic Interest Grouping (EEIG)	172

Chapter III

Free Movement of Capital in an Open Economy: The Monetary Eurosystem	181
1. The Evolution of Economic and Financial Relations in the New World Order	182
2. The Euro and the Free Movement of Capital and Payments	184

3.	The Complex Set of Rules on Capital and Payments in Their Original Formulation in the Treaty of Rome	189
4.	The Conflict between the Economic Integration Process and Member States' Economic and Monetary Policies: The Werner Report and the 22 March 1971 Resolution	195
5.	From the 'European Monetary Snake' to the European Monetary System ('EMS'). The Re-Launch of Financial Integration: Subsequent Commission Communications to the Council Up to the (Delors) Report on the Economic and Monetary Union	197
6.	The Economic and Monetary Union and the Maastricht Treaty	200
7.	The Criticalities of the European 'Rigid' System	208
8.	A Criticism of the Double Standard: Serious Distortions Across the Eurosystem. The UK case	211
9.	The Impact of the Euro on Contracts of Duration	213
10.	Private Parties and the Full Liberalization of Capital Movements and Payments in the European Union	219
11.	The Fundamental Freedoms and the Exercise of 'Special Powers': The Terms of the Problem	223
12.	The Legal Bases of the Conflict Over 'Golden Shares' between the Commission and Member States	224
13.	The Permitted Scope of the National States' and Their Agencies' Intervention	229
14.	The Saga of the Commission's Scrutiny of the Italian Rules on Special Powers	231
15.	The 'Proportionate' Exercise of Control in the ECJ's Recent Case-Law	233

Chapter IV

	The Role of the European Union in the Organization of International Economy	241
1.	Introductory Remarks	242
2.	International Economic Cooperation: From GATT 1947 to the WTO	250
3.	The WTO's Relationships with the Other International Economic Organizations: (a) with the United Nations	256
4.	More: (b) with the International Monetary Fund: 'Monetary Dumping'	256
5.	More: (c) with the G7 Finance	262
6.	More: (d) with the International Labour Organisation ('ILO')	263
7.	The European Union and 'Social Dumping'	268
8.	The Globalization Process: The Widening Gap Between Industrialized Countries and Less Developed Countries (LDCs) and the Doha Round's Difficulties	270

9.	The DSB (Dispute Settlement Body) as Contrasted with the Previous System of International Dispute Settlement within the WTO	272
10.	Institutional and Procedural Innovations under the Uruguay Round Final Act	274
11.	Settled Legal Principles in DSB/WTO Case-Law	276
12.	Protection of Private Interests within the WTO System	280
13.	The Role of a Private Party, Enterprise Concerned or Association as Amicus Curiae, and Judicial Protection under the Covered Agreements	284
14.	The WTO and the European Union	287
15.	The European Commission's 'External' Weaknesses and China	288
16.	Trade Defence Instruments: (a) Safeguard Measures in General	294
17.	More: Safeguard Measures with Regard to the People's Republic of China	298
18.	More: (b) 'Dumping' and 'Subsidies' as Causes of Diversion of International Trade	299
19.	The New International Rules on Dumping and Subsidies and their Implementation within the EU	300
20.	Legal Nature of Dumping: The Requirements	303
21.	Circumvention of Antidumping Duties: The 'Screwdriver Assembly' issue	306
22.	Community Interest Falling Outside the Scope of GATT Antidumping Provisions: Critical Remarks	310
23.	Implementing WTO Rules on Dumping and Subsidies: (a) in the United States of America	320
24.	More: (b) in the Chinese Legal System	323
25.	Dumping and Competition in the EU	326

Chapter V

	Multinational Enterprises and Globalization	331
1.	Methodological Preamble	332
2.	Definitory Elucidation	333
3.	Multinational Enterprises and International Law in a Changing World	338
4.	Multinational Enterprises and the European Union	351
5.	The Features of the Phenomenon in General: Unrestricted Freedom of Choice and the Resulting Basic Distortions of Competition	352
6.	Advantages Lawfully Acquired by Multinationals in Some Instances of Daily Practice	356
7.	Production Delocation as a Result of Globalization	358
8.	The Impact of Globalization on Financial Markets: The USA Financial Crisis	359
9.	More: The Sovereign Funds	362

10. Unlawful Conduct of Multinational Enterprises	364
11. Risk Areas: The Problem of the 'Normal' Value of 'Transfer Prices' and of Royalties in Intragroup Transactions	365
12. International Cooperation against Corruption, Pollution, Money Laundering, Financial Crimes and the International Financing of Terrorism	368
13. The Role of Banks in Controlling Transactions at Risk	372
14. International Cooperation in the Supervision of Banking Groups and the Basel Concordat: The Different Levels of Control	373
15. Consolidated Supervision Over Banking Transactions in the Relationships between Legal Systems	378
16. From the Basel II Rules to the Present Rules of the European Union	380
17. Investigations into 'Suspicious Activities' in Context	382
18. The Universal Notion of 'SAR' (Suspicious Activity Reporting)	383
19. Suspicious Activity Reporting Requirements to Prevail over any Other Requirement of Law	387
20. The 'Codes of Conduct'	391
21. 'Social Commitment' and Multinational Enterprises: Consequences on the Relationships with the Home State and with Third Countries	393
22. Multinational Enterprises' Activity in a Regional Perspective: The Limited Scope for Enforcement of Community Rules	395
23. The European Union and 'Corporate Social Responsibility'	399
24. Community Actions in Favour of Small and Medium-Sized Enterprises	403
25. Legal Restrictions on Third-Country-Based Multinationals' Operations in the European Union	408
26. Applying Competition Rules to Non-Community Businesses	410
27. Anti-Dumping and Anti-Subsidy Rules as Applied to Non-Community Multinationals	412

Chapter VI

Competition Law between General Theory and Actual Implementation 413

1. The Peculiarities of the Rules on Competition in General	414
2. Protection of Interests under European Competition Law	417
3. Competition Law Rules as an Essential Part of EU Formation. The Legal Basis of European Rules. The Limited Scope of this Study	420
4. Objectives and Aims of EU Competition Law Rules	423
5. The 'Relevant' Market and the Significance of Economic Analysis	428
6. The Commission's Role in the EU Competition Law System	433

7.	Some Aspects of the Cumulation of the Commission's Functions in Administrative Proceedings	437
8.	Immediate and Direct Applicability of Commission Decisions	439
9.	Public Enterprise and Competition: Transparency of Financial Relations between Member States and Public Undertakings	441
10.	The Alitalia Bailout and European Rules	445
11.	A Criticism of the Extensive Application by the Commission of Article 87 EC, Specifically in Respect of State Aid	450
12.	State Aid by Legislative Act under US Law and New Possible Approaches in EU Law	457
13.	Recovery Decisions and Rights of Defence	461
14.	The Community Courts' Control over Commission Decisions	464
15.	The Scope of Application of the Community's Rules of Competition Law	468
16.	Direct Applicability of the European Rules on Competition and the Member States' Authorities' Competence to Apply Them	477
17.	Relationships between Community Rules and National Rules	487
18.	Applying the Subsidiarity Principle Having Regard to the 'One-Stop Shop', and the Multi-State Examination of Mergers	491
19.	Damages Awarded for Losses Arising from Infringements of Antitrust Rules	496
20.	Actions for Damages Brought by Competing Undertakings	497
21.	Actions for Damages in Consumer Protection	501
22.	A New Collective Redress Action: The So-Called 'Italian Class Action'	506
23.	Italian Courts' Jurisdiction in Collective Redress Actions and Community Law	517
24.	Assessment of Loss in Antitrust Cases	521
	List of Binding Acts of the EC Institutions	525
	List of the Rulings of the EC Courts and of the Opinions of the Advocates General	531
	List of Authors Cited in this Volume	543
	Index	547