Organizational Communication

THIRD EDITION

Alan Jay Zaremba
NORTHEASTERN UNIVERSITY

New York  Oxford
OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS
2010
CONTENTS

Preface • xv
About the Author • xix

PART 1: FOUNDATIONS • 1

CHAPTER 1. Organizational Communication: An Introduction • 2
  Chapter in a Nutshell • 2
  Case 1.1: Communicating with Chuck • 3
  Communication and Organizational Success • 4
  Communication Is Central • 5
  Communication Is a Pervasive Activity • 6
  Organizations Function by Operating Interdependently • 7
  Organizations Must Relay Information about Expectations and Policy • 7
  Poor Internal Communication Can Result in Bruised Interpersonal Relationships That May Undermine the Efficiency of an Organization • 8
  Organizational Communication Is Multidimensional • 8
  Breadth of Topics • 9
  Multifaceted Problems • 9
  Managerial Perspectives • 11
  Misconceptions about Organizational Communication • 13
  Defining Terms • 15
    Communication Is Both a Transmission and a Constitutive Process • 17
    Communication Is a Nonlinear Phenomenon • 18
    Communication Can Be Intentional or Unintentional • 19
    Communication Can Be Verbal or Nonverbal • 20
    Sending a Message Is Not Synonymous with Communicating • 20
    Communication Is Irreversible • 21
    Communication Is Different from Understanding • 21
  Defining Factors: Skill, Networks, Culture, and Power • 22
    Communication Skill • 22
    Networks • 24
    Culture • 24
    Power • 24
  Practitioner Perspective: Craig Ingraham, Vice President and Senior Counsel • 26
  Text Features • 27
  Summary: A Toolbox • 27
  Review and Discussion Questions • 28
  Self-Inventory • 28
  Group/Role-Play • 29
CHAPTER 2. Management Theory and Organizational Communication • 30
Chapter in a Nutshell • 30
Case 2.1: Communicating to a New Staff • 31
Demystifying Theories • 32
Symbiotic Theory: What Is Symbiosis and Symbiotic Theory? • 33
Classical Theory of Management • 33
Frederick Taylor and Scientific Management • 34
Soldiering and Systematic Soldiering • 34
Scientific Management and Communication • 35
Henri Fayol—General Principles of Management • 35
Money and Motivation • 40
The Hawthorne Studies • 41
Human Relations and Human Resources Theories • 43
Human Relations Theory • 43
Opposition to the Human Relations Theory • 44
Human Resources Theory • 45
Theory X and Theory Y • 49
Maslow, Herzberg, and Woodward • 51
Concerns with Theory Y • 54
Practitioner Perspective: Duane Vild, Complex Warden for the State of Arizona
Department of Corrections; Bureau Administrator, Department of Corrections • 57
Summary: A Toolbox • 58
Review and Discussion Questions • 59
Group/Role-Play • 59
Self-Inventory • 59

CHAPTER 3. Theoretical Foundations: Systems, Culture, and Power • 60
Chapter in a Nutshell • 60
Case 3.1: Sales Department, Service Department, and Customers • 61
Systems Theory • 62
Open and Closed Systems • 62
Hierarchical Ordering • 62
Relevant Environment • 63
Permeability; Input/Output, and Throughput • 63
Entropy and Negative Entropy • 64
Requisite Variety • 64
Homeostasis • 64
Equifinality • 65
Learning Organizations • 65
Cultural Theory • 66
What Is Cultural Theory? • 66
Functionalists and Interpretivists • 67
Deal and Kennedy; Peters and Waterman • 67
Contents

Critical Theory • 69
What Is Critical Theory? • 70
Values of Critical Theory • 70
Ideology, Manufactured Consent, and Hegemony • 71
Multiple Stakeholder Theory, Workplace Democracy, Concertive Control • 72
Feminism and Critical Theory • 73
Applying Symbiotic Theory • 74
Practitioner Perspective: Robert Peterkin, Former School Superintendent • 75
Summary: A Toolbox • 77
Review and Discussion Questions • 77

CHAPTER 4. Ethics and Organizational Communication • 78
Chapter in a Nutshell • 78
Case 4.1: Lying to Rachel Adams • 79
Examining Ethics • 80
Ethical Decisions and Organizational Communication • 81
Is Honesty Overrated? • 83
The Normalization of Deviance • 84
Camouflaging "Cumulative Directionality" • 84
Moral Conflict • 86
Strategic Ambiguity • 86
What Is Strategic Ambiguity? • 87
Purported Values of Strategic Ambiguity • 88
Problems with Strategic Ambiguity • 89
Assessing Attitudes toward Ethical Communication • 92
What Constitutes Ethical Communication? • 92
Highs and Lows • 94
Making Ethical Decisions • 96
Resolving Ethical Issues in Organizational Communication • 96
Would These Yardsticks Help Janet in the "Rachel Adams" Case? • 97
Practitioner Perspective: Victoria Kohlasch, Managing Director of Marketing • 99
Summary: A Toolbox • 100
Review and Discussion Questions • 100
Group/Role-Play • 101

PART 2: COMMUNICATION IN A COMPLEX SYSTEM • 103

CHAPTER 5. Managing Information • 104
Chapter in a Nutshell • 104
Case 5.1: Communicating Tasks, Policy, Recognition, and Culture • 105
Information and Organizations • 106
Information and Organizational Health • 107
Types of Messages • 107
Contents

Five Criteria • 111
Selecting Media Options • 113
Media “Richness” • 114
Ranking Media in Terms of Richness • 115
Additional Criteria When Evaluating Media • 115
Social Media • 116
What Is Social Media? • 116
Types of Social Media • 117
Impact of Social Media • 118
New Technology: Examining First- and Second-Level Effects • 118
Knowledge Management • 119
What Is Knowledge Management? • 120
The Learning Organization and Knowledge Management • 121
Knowledge Management and the Application of Theory • 121
Human Needs: The Human Moment* • 122
Shoveling Coal and Human Moments • 123
Information Needs and Selecting Media: A Recap • 123
Practitioner Perspective: Gordon Rudow, CEO • 124
Summary: A Toolbox* • 126
Review and Discussion Questions • 126
Group/Role-Play • 127

Chapter 6. Communication Networks • 128
Chapter in a Nutshell • 128
Case 6.1: Internet Development, CCS, and Customers • 129
What Are Communication Networks? • 130
Example 1: Buckley, Marshall, and Keyes • 130
Example 2: The Patel CDs • 131
Types of Communication Networks • 132
Location: External and Internal Networks • 132
Formality: Formal and Informal Networks • 134
Direction: Upward, Downward, and Horizontal Networks • 140
Practitioner Perspective: Mike Armani, Vice President for Marketing and Communication • 150
Summary: A Toolbox • 151
Review and Discussion Questions • 151
Group/Role-Play • 151

Chapter 7. Culture, Climate, and Organizational Communication • 152
Chapter in a Nutshell • 152
Case 7.1: The Elan Corporation • 153
Climate and Culture • 154
Contents  xi

What Is Organizational Climate? • 155
Additional Factors and Features • 157
What Is Organizational Culture? • 157

Relationship between Climate and Culture • 159
Culture, Communication, and Assimilation • 159
Assimilation, Socialization, and Identification • 160
Organizational Socialization • 160
Stages in the Organizational Socialization • 160
Process: Anticipatory Socialization
Organizational Assimilation: An Illustration • 163
The Seeds of Culture: Embedding and Transmitting
Culture • 165
Manufacturing Culture • 166
Illusory Cultures and Teams • 167
Constitutive Communication and Emergent Cultures • 168

Leadership • 169
Emotional Intelligence • 173

What Is Emotional Intelligence? • 174
The Value of Emotional Intelligence • 174

Conclusion: Credibility and Human Values • 174
Practitioner Perspective: Governor Michael Dukakis • 175
Summary: A Toolbox • 178
Review and Discussion Questions • 178
Group/Role-Play • 179

CHAPTER 8. Meetings and Teams: Conflicts and Interventions • 180
Chapter in a Nutshell • 180
Case 8.1: Gerald Sweeney and the Regular Wednesday Meetings • 181
The Phenomenon of Meetings • 182
Meetings, Bloody Meetings • 182
Values of Meetings • 183
Primary and Secondary Tension • 183
Primary Tension • 183
Secondary Tension • 184
Counterproductive Group Tendencies • 186
Conformity: Groupthink, the Asch Effect, and Goal Liner • 186
Ethnocentrism: Cultural Elitism • 189
Inadequate Agendas and Hidden Agendas • 189
Competition vs. Cooperation • 190
Tolerating High-Level Term Abstraction • 191
Interventions • 191
Types of Interventions • 192
Making Interventions Work • 198
Team Members as Participant-Observers • 198
Leadership • 198
Team Reports • 200
Types of Collective Presentations • 201
Desired Outcomes • 202
Getting There: A Step-by-Step Procedure • 203
Practitioner Perspective: Gail Hunter, Vice President of Events and Attractions, National Basketball Association • 205
Summary: A Toolbox • 206
Review and Discussion Questions • 206
Group/Role-Play • 207

PART 3: CONTEMPORARY ISSUES • 209
CHAPTER 9. Intercultural Communication and the Organization • 210
Chapter in a Nutshell • 210
Case 9.1: Rando Systems Expands Internationally • 211
Why Study Intercultural Communication? • 212
Effective Intercultural Communication Has Become Essential • 213
What Do We Mean by Culture? • 214
Intercultural Communication in Organizational Contexts • 215
Defining Intercultural Communication • 215
Types of Intercultural Exchanges and Problems • 216
Barriers to Effective Intercultural Communication • 217
Approaches to Multinational Expansion • 221
The Hofstede Studies • 222
Suggestions for Overcoming Barriers • 223
Practitioner Perspective: Steve MacLeod, Senior Vice President • 228
Summary: A Toolbox • 230
Review and Discussion Questions • 230
Group/Role-Play • 231

CHAPTER 10. Crisis Communication • 232
Chapter in a Nutshell • 232
Case 10.1: The Nuance Group • 233
Organizations and Crisis Communication • 234
What Is a Crisis? • 234
What Is Crisis Communication? • 234
Why Study Crisis Communication? • 235
Theory and Practice • 235
Crisis Communication Planning • 237
CHAPTER 11. Assessing Organizational Communication Quality • 254
Chapter in a Nutshell • 254
Case 11.1: STIG: Perspectives of a Staffer • 255
What Is a Communication Audit? • 256
Audit Qualities and Components • 256
  Validity and Reliability • 256
  Audit Components • 259
  Methods for Conducting Audits • 261
  External or Internal Auditing? • 268
Reporting Results • 268
Practitioner Perspective: Angela Sinickas, Founder and President • 270
Summary: A Toolbox • 271
Review and Discussion Questions • 271
Group/Role-Play • 271

CHAPTER 12. Careers in Organizational Communication • 272
Chapter in a Nutshell • 272
Case 12.1: What Can I Do with This? • 273
Communication as Critical to Success • 273
What Jobs Are Available? • 274
  Are There Sufficient Openings? • 277
  What Do These Jobs Entail? • 277
Preparing for the Job Market • 278
  Education: Theory and Principles • 278
  Education: Communication Skill Sets • 279
  Co-curricular Activities • 280
  The Communication Portfolio • 281
  Networking • 281
Practitioner Perspective: Marcia Meislin, Owner • 286
Summary: A Toolbox • 286
Review and Discussion Questions • 287
Group/Role-Play • 288

Notes • 289
Credits • 304
Index • 305