Globalization and Emerging Societies
Development and Inequality

Edited by
Jan Nederveen Pieterse
University of California, Santa Barbara

Boike Rehbein
University of Freiburg, Germany
Contents

Contributors vii
Figures and Tables x
Acknowledgements xi

Introduction 1: Development and Inequality 1
Jan Nederveen Pieterse

Introduction 2: Chapters 8
Boike Rehbein

I. Twenty-first Century Globalization 15
1. Twenty-first Century Globalization: Global Sociology
   Jan Nederveen Pieterse

2. Rise of the Global South and the Emerging Contours of a
   New World Order 39
   Ravi Arvind Palat

3. Are More People Becoming Vulnerable to Poverty? Evidence from Grassroots Investigations in Five Countries 61
   Anirudh Krishna

II. Emerging Societies 85
4. Globalization and Development: Learning from Debates in China
   James H. Mittelman

5. Internal Migration in Mainland China: Regional and World-Systemic Aspects 104
   Ganesh K. Trichur

6. Paradigm Shift in India: Analysing the Impact of Liberalization and Globalization 130
   Anand Kumar
Contents

7. Hierarchical Integration: The Dollar Economy and the Rupee Economy 142
   Anirudh Krishna and Jan Nederveen Pieterse

8. Inequality, Culture and Globalization in Emerging Societies: Reflections on the Brazilian Case 161
   Joanildo A. Burity

III. Engagements

9. Africa’s Engagement with China: Perpetuating the Class Project? 185
   Sanusha Naidu and Johanna Jansson

10. The Renaissance of Society: From Emerging Powers to Emerging Societies in a European Perspective 206
    Hermann Schwengel

Bibliography 228
Index 251