Intra-regional Trade of ASEAN Plus Three: Trends and Implications for East Asian Economic Integration

BUI Truong Giang
Contents

Executive Summary ........................................................................................................... 3

I. Observations on the Evolving Trend in ASEAN+3
   Trade Relations ............................................................................................................. 7
   1. Observation 1: East Asia’s Trade Grows Fast and Driving World Trade ................................................................................................. 7
   2. Observation 2: The North-South Pattern in Trade Relations between the ASEAN-10 and the ASEAN+3 has been the Key Facilitator of the ASEAN+3’s Intra-regional Trade
      During the Last Two Decades ................................................................................. 11
   3. Observation 3: The Shifting Roles of Key Drivers in East Asia’s Trade are Happening ............................................................................. 14
   4. Observation 4: Intra-industry Trade is Rising with the Highest Proportion of Intermediate Products ......................................................... 17

II. Logics behind Deeper Institutionalization of ASEAN+3
   Economic Relations and Implications for East Asian Economic Integration ................................................................................................. 22
   1. Logics behind Deeper Institutionalization of ASEAN+3
      Economic Relations ................................................................................................. 22
   2. Implications for East Asian Economic Integration ................................................. 28

III. Some Concluding Remarks ......................................................................................... 34

References ....................................................................................................................... 36