Japan’s Politics and Economy
Perspectives on change

Edited by Marie Söderberg and Patricia A. Nelson
Contents

List of figures ix
List of tables x
List of contributors xi
Preface xiii
Note on names and transcriptions xvii
List of abbreviations xviii

1 Introduction: dynamics of change 1
PATRICIA A. NELSON AND MARIE SÖDERBERG

PART I
Setting the stage 19

2 Contending with regional uncertainty: Japan’s response to contemporary East Asian security challenges 21
JOHN SWENSON-WRIGHT

3 Japan: balancing between a hegemon and a would-be hegemon 46
PAUL MIDFORD

PART II
Case studies 69

4 Shifting incentives for political leadership 71
VERENA BLECHINGER-TALCOTT

5 The construction of citizenship through volunteering: the case of lifelong learning 86
AKIHIRO OGAWA
Contents

6 Foreign aid as a tool for peace building: is the goal security or poverty reduction? 99
   MARIE SÖDERBERG

7 Peace diplomacy by ODA: rhetoric and reality 117
   NORBERT PALANOVICS

8 The changing political economy of defence production: the rise of a military-industrial complex? 138
   CHRISTOPHER W. HUGHES

9 Stability and the status quo: changing power structures in the optics industry 161
   PATRICIA A. NELSON

10 Sources and processes of change: the case of the game software industry 182
   CORNELIA STORZ

11 Conclusion: perspectives on change 200
   MARIE SÖDERBERG AND PATRICIA A. NELSON

Index 205