Globalization,
Management Control
and Ideology
Local and Multinational Perspectives

Edited by
Riad Ajami, C. Edward Arrington
Falconer Mitchell & Hanne Nørreklit

DJØF Publishing
Copenhagen
2005
Contents

Editors’ Preface ................................................................. 7

Introduction

1 Globalization, Management Control and Ideology .................. 11
   Riad Ajami, C. Edward Arrington, Falconer Mitchell and Hanne Nørreklit

Part One Systems of Modernity and Local Ideology

2 Jeremiah, Bill Gates, and American Ideology ..................... 23
   C. Edward Arrington

3 American "Fair Contract" and Danish Tradition:
   Problems of Conflicting Ideologies .................................. 33
   Hanne Nørreklit, Preben Melander and Lennart Nørreklit

4 When a Totalitarian Ideology Prevails: Exploring the Relations of Fascist “Corporative Economy” and Business Studies in Italy in the Thirties ......................... 57
   Lino Cinquini

5 Western Ideology and Management: An Oriental Detour .......... 81
   Yvon Pesqueux, Dang Pham Huy and Fabien de Geuser

6 Contracts and the Dynamics of Exchange Relationships in India ................................................................. 99
   Rajesh Kumar

7 Global Financial Markets and Indigenous Financial Systems: The Emerging Fault Lines ............................................. 113
   Riad Ajami
Part Two  Ideology of Modernity and Management Control

8  Ideology and Local Management Practice and Discourse:
   A Framework ................................................................. 137
   Annick Bourguignon

9  Are They Really Too Simple? Management Control Systems Face the Ideology of Complexity ............................................. 159
   Michel Fiol and Fabien de Geuser

10 Late-modern Politics and the Ubiquity of Accounting:
   The Expansion of New Public Management within the US Public Sector ................................................................. 181
   Ann L. Watkins and C. Edward Arrington

11 Ideology and the UK Management Accounting Profession ............ 197
   Falconer Mitchell

12 ‘Truly Impartial, Truly Serving The Public’:
   Anglo-American Influences and Ideology in the Development of Auditing in Germany .................................................... 213
   Lisa Evans

Part Three  Postmodern Trajectories: From Control to Therapy

13 Ideology at Work: Using Language to Reconstruct Workplace Realities ................................................................. 237
   Inger Askehave

14 The Ideology of Management Coaching ........................................ 257
   Anne Ellerup Nielsen and Hanne Nørreklit

Part Four  Towards Cosmopolitan Reconciliation of Control and Ideology

15 The Validity of Ideological Globalization .................................. 283
   Lennart Nørreklit

About the Authors ................................................................. 309