Retirement, Work and Pensions in Ageing Korea

Edited by Jae-jin Yang and Thomas R. Klassen
Contents

List of figures ix
List of tables x
List of contributors xii
Acknowledgements xiv
Abbreviations xv

1. Introduction: Population ageing and income security 1
THOMAS R. KLASSEN AND JAE-JIN YANG

2. Pathway to the Korean welfare state: From newly industrialized to an ageing tiger 14
MOO-KWON CHUNG

3. South Korea's unique demography and social risks 32
YOUNG JUN CHOI

4. The emergence of a new labour market: The changing nature of work and retirement 51
DONG-MYEON SHIN

5. The National Pension Scheme and the multi-pillar system of old-age income security in Korea 67
SOO WAN KIM

6. Korean Civil Service Pension: History and recent reform 78
JUN-HO BAE

7. Building private and occupational pension schemes in Korea 96
HANAM PHANG

8. Challenges to pension fund management: Governance and investment strategy 109
JONGWOOK WON
Contents

9. Public pension schemes at a crossroads: Rapid ageing but little room for reform 119
   SUK-MYUNG YUN

10. Pension politics in Korea: Social dialogue and the pension reform process 129
    HONGWON CHUNG

11. The Korean experience in comparative perspective 148
    MARTIN HERING

12. Conclusion: Averting the expected catastrophe 176
    JAE-JIN YANG AND THOMAS R. KLASSEN

Index 186