Economic Reforms and Productivity Change in Selected Indian Industries

Dr. Maniklal Adhikary
Ritwik Mazumder

ABHIJEET PUBLICATIONS
DELHI 110 094
Contents

Preface

1. Introduction
—Maniklal Adhikary and Ritwik Mazumder

PART I
Spatial and Regional Studies on Productivity Growth in Indian Industries

2. Liberalisation and Spatial Variation in Manufacturing Sector Productivity: A Study of Selected Indian States
—Maniklal Adhikary and Ritwik Mazumder

3. Economic Reforms and Manufacturing Sector Productivity in West Bengal
—Maniklal Adhikary and Ritwik Mazumder

4. Manufacturing Sector Productivity in West Bengal Across Phases of Liberalisation
—Maniklal Adhikary and Ritwik Mazumder

PART II
Productivity Change in Agriculture and Allied Industries

5. Growth and Instability in Agriculture: A Pre and Post Liberalization Scenario of Potato in West Bengal
—Maniklal Adhikary and Sk. Tibul Hoque
6. Productivity Growth in Food Processing Industries in West Bengal across Phases of Liberalisation during 1981-97
—Maniklal Adhikary, Srabanti Maiti and Ritwik Mazumder

7. Liberalisation and its Impact on Productivity Growth in the Jute Industry in West Bengal
—Maniklal Adhikary and Ritwik Mazumder

PART III
Economic Reforms and Productivity Change in Large Scale Manufacturing

—Maniklal Adhikary and Ritwik Mazumder

9. Economic Reforms and Total Factor Productivity Growth in the Cotton Textile Industry in Maharashtra
—Maniklal Adhikary, Sutapa Ghosh & Ritwik Mazumder

—Maniklal Adhikary and Ritwik Mazumder

11. Technical Progress and Input Bias in Motor Car Manufacturing in India During 1997-2004
—Maniklal Adhikary and Ritwik Mazumder

PART IV
Efficiency Study on Indian Industries

12. Exogenous Influences on Firm Level Technical Efficiency in the Indian Automobile Industry
—Maniklal Adhikary and Ritwik Mazumder