The Growing Business Handbook

12th edition

Inspiration & advice from successful entrepreneurs & fast growing UK companies

Consultant editor: Adam Jolly

Nottingham University Business School

IoD

Knowledge Transfer Partnerships

KOGAN PAGE

London and Philadelphia
Contents

Foreword

Part 1: Planning for growth

1.1 New rules for entrepreneurs
Julie Meyer, Ariadne Capital

- Individual capitalism has come of age 3;
- Reduce the size of government in order to reduce the tax burden on SMEs 4;
- Challenge the media to step out of their comfort zone 5;
- Treat the SME as your corner store 5;
- Educate the young to expect success 5;
- Privately backed social enterprise 5;
- Ecosystem economics 6;
- Small government = strong individuals 6;
- Britain can handle BIG 7

1.2 Business and the downturn
Graeme Leach, IoD

- Cashflow 9;
- The longer term 10;
- Fixed assets 10;
- Training 10;
- Business contacts 10

1.3 Make growth happen
Lorraine Uhlaner, Nyenrode Business University

- Make a conscious decision to grow, or not 13;
- Implement a good market strategy 14;
- Find staff that can grow with you 14;
- Do not choose loyalty over growth 14;
- Be prepared to share your company 14;
- Consider joint operating agreements with partners 15;
- Maintain your flexibility 15;
- Learn from your mistakes 15;
- Teach yourself to manage 15;
- Start a company with other people 15;
- Understand cashflows 16;
- Save for a rainy day 16
1.4 How to beat the competition
Allison McSparron-Edwards, Consultrix
Outside-in or macro-approaches 19; Inside-out or micro-approaches 19; Post-industrial strategies 20; Fast strategies 20; Not forgetting the customer revolution 21; Limitations to the creation and utilization of strategies 21

1.5 Strategy under stress
Sandra Rapacioli, CIMA
Questions for stressed strategists 24; Understanding your position 24; Creating options 25; Taking action 25; Embracing risk 25

1.6 Coach for growth
Carmelina Lawton Smith, Oxford Brookes University
The potential available 27; A coaching culture 29; The coaching process 30; Wider benefits 30; Summary 31

1.7 Understanding your risk landscape
Louis Cooper, Horwath Clark Whitehill
Current trends 34; Current challenges 34; Current solutions 34

Part 2: Ideas and innovation

2.1 Ingenuity – improving the quality of ideas
Martin Binks, Simon Mosey and Paul Kirkham, UNIEI and Nottingham University Business School

2.2 Innovate your way out of a recession
Andy Bruce, SofTools
What is innovation? 47; The golden rules of innovation 48; Planning – innovation must be linked to strategy 49; Pipeline – maximize your sources of ideas 49; Process – ideas to evaluation to execution 49; People – leaders and champions 49; Platform – technology as the accelerator 49; Performance – measure, manage, improve 50; Barriers to innovation 50

2.3 Creativity: what’s in it for you?
Tony Buzan, inventor of Mind Maps
Working creatively 54; Checklist: Five stages of individual creative Mind Mapping 54; Checklist: Seven stages of creative group Mind Mapping 57
2.4 Gearing knowledge
   Mark Thompson, UMIP
   Technology commercialization 62; Defining ‘the knowledge economy’ 62

2.5 IP for growth
   Jacqueline Needle, Beck Greener
   The need to protect innovation 65; The pitfalls in ignoring IP 67;
   Free IP rights and information 68; Patenting 68; Enforcing IP rights 69; IP professionals 69

   Feature: Collaborating on the innovation journey
   Debbie Buckley-Golder, Knowledge Transfer Partnerships 71

Part 3: Gaining market share

3.1 Growth of the marketing plan
   Tony Treacy, Ideas to Market 79

3.2 Your brand on the web
   Matthew Heath, LIDA
   Where to start? 83

3.3 Brand presence
   Graham Lowes, OKI Printing Solutions
   Letterhead 88; Literature 88; Prospecting and lead generation 88;
   Consistency 88

3.4 Customer communications
   Rhys Morgan, GMC Software Technology
   Buyer’s market 90; Inter-departmental approach 91; TransPromo techniques 91; Single system 94; The goal 95

3.5 Marketing out of trouble
   Ross Feeney, South London Business
   Websites 98; SMS text marketing 99; Business awards 99

3.6 Risk as a competitive differentiator
   Keith Baxter, De-RISK
   Quantifying cost rises as a route to the lowest price 101; Guaranteeing delivery 105; Shadowing the competition’s risks 105
Part 4: People and performance

4.1 Employee relations in growth companies
Kate Robertson, Ledingham Chalmers
Small business requirements 117; Small business growth 119; Small local business to regional or national business 120; Conclusion 121

4.2 Managing your employment costs
Chris Blundell and Will Cookson, Mazars
Attracting and retaining key individuals 122; Aligning interests of executives with the shareholders 123; Squeezing out value from the wage bill: salary sacrifice 124; Dealing with rapid decline or growth in employee numbers 125; Extracting funds for the owner-manager/senior executives 126

4.3 Alternatives to redundancy
Gillian Leach, Blake Lapthorn
Retraining 127; Retirement 129; Sabbaticals 129; Cutting pay 129; Changing hours 129; Reducing benefits 130; Moving location 130; Temporary lay-off 131

4.4 Training for the future
Sue Densley, Qualifications and Curriculum Development Agency
Get your in-house training nationally recognized 136; Flexible learning for all 136; It is in your hands 137

4.5 Pay and reward solutions
Lua Leggett, Evolve Associates
Arrival 140; The journey 140; The destination and departure 141

4.6 Benefits strategy
Lee French, Alexander Forbes
The measure of success must be maximum return for minimum investment 144; Summary 146

4.7 Accidents can happen
Noel Walsh, Weightmans
Expansion, merger and acquisition 148; Policies and procedures 150; Risk assessments 150; Who are your employees? 150; Contractors 151; Lost in translation 151; Monitoring your employees' health 152; If the worst happens... 152

Feature: Pension risks 154
Jonathan Bull, OPDU

Feature: Upskilling your business workforce 160
Linda Wilkin, Association of Business Executives

Part 5: Clean profits

5.1 The low carbon economy and smaller business 171
Richard Howarth, specialist in environmental management
Changing climate, changing lives 171; The opportunity for business 172; Promoting the way forward 172; So where now for you? 173; Summary, assurance and support 175

5.2 Greening up business 177
Dax Lovegrove, WWF-UK
Progressive examples 178

5.3 Sustainable quality returns 181
Paul Adderley, Sustainable Opportunity Solutions
What are sustainable quality returns? 181; Valuing the long game on a level playing field 182; Asserting sustainable values 183; Sustainable value streams 183; Actions for sustainable business management 185; In summary 186

5.4 Buying sustainability 189
Trudy Salandiak, Chartered Institute of Purchasing & Supply
Minimizing business risk 189; Cost savings 190; Brand reputation 190; New markets, new products 190; Securing a constant supply 190; Reducing waste, improving efficiency 190; It is the law 191; The price of inactivity 191; And finally 192

5.5 Making waste work 193
Colin Crooks, Green-Works
Cost 193; Recycle 195; Reuse 195; Regenerate 196; Innovate 196

5.6 Becoming carbon neutral 198
Bill Thomson, Hello Scotland

5.7 Sustainable travel 205
Paul Tilstone, ITM
Creating truly sustainable business travel programmes 207; Focus on the end-game 207
Part 6: Cashflow and working capital

6.1 Cash positive

Gary Downey, Mazars

The business strategy 215; Zero-based budgeting across the whole business 216; Appropriate management information 217; Active cashflow and credit management 217; Relationship with banks and other funders 218

6.2 Relationships with your bank

Ian Collins, Commercial Lloyds TSB Scotland

So what type of customer/catch are you? 220

6.3 Foreign exchange

Mark Deans, Moneycorp

Different types of risk 223; To cover or not to cover 224; Bookmakers do not gamble 224; Use forwards to help cashflow 226; Insurance 226; Outsourcing 227

6.4 Expense management

Matthew Cavalier, American Express

6.5 Before the money runs out

Chris Lowe, Colobus

Things to monitor 234; Short form working capital report 235; Monthly cashflow report 236; A few final dos and don’ts, especially if money is or may become tight 237

Profile: Barclaycard and e-commerce: owning the world of simple payments

Part 7: Business technology and systems

7.1 Virtual meetings

Aaron McCormack, BT Conferencing

7.2 Unified communications

Sarah-Jane Willoughby and Huib Coopmans, Verizon Business

Move your business to where real time and reponse time happen at the same time 261

7.3 Making best use of the ‘cloud’

Kate Craig-Wood, Memset

Virtual desktops 268; Software as a service 268; Web hosting 268
7.4 When the system fails
Andrew Barnes, Neverfail

Part 8: Managing fast growth

8.1 Avoid growing pains
Mike Osborne, ICM
Knowing your roles 278; Keeping things moving 278; People first 278; Contracts and suppliers 279; Regulatory obligations 279; A real opportunity 280

8.2 Risk management vs strategic assumptions
Keith Baxter, De-RISK
Why is there so much resistance to risk management? 283; Capturing and communication of assumptions 284; Assumption analysis in practice 285

8.3 Making projects work
Peter Simon and Ruth Murray-Webster, Lucidus Consulting
Understand the business perspective 287; Engage stakeholders through effective communication 289; Define and measure success 289; Manage scope and quality 289; Manage time, resources and cost 290; Manage your team 290; Understand and manage uncertainty and risk 290; Monitor, report and control 291; Learn and close in a controlled way 291

8.4 Prepared for conflict
Ranse Howell, CEDR
Opportunity in changing times 293; Conflict – what is it really? 293; It starts with business planning 295; How to approach conflict management in your business 295; Potential conflict case study 298; A further thought 300

8.5 Risk and decision analysis
Craig Ferri, Palisade Europe
Accessible to all 303; Better decision making 303; Adopting a healthy approach to risk 304

8.6 Complexities of scale
Graham Sharp, OR Society
What is OR? 309; How is OR done? 309; It’s all around you, even if you can’t see it! 309; OR in transport 310; OR in manufacturing 310; OR in sport 310; OR in government 311; OR in supply chains 311; The increasingly complex world 311
8.7 Loss prevention
Kelly Lehmann, Stewart Business Software
Personal risk 315; Asset risks 315; Delegation risks 316; Market risks 316; Control risks 317; Buying insurance 317; Making claims 318; What should you expect from your insurer? 318; Summary and conclusions 319

8.8 Avoiding business disasters
Keith Baxter, De-RISK
Black swan events 324; So why doesn’t risk management cope with black swans? 325; Assumptions analysis, not risk analysis 325; Black swan assumption analysis 326; Managing black swans 327; Good black swans 327

Part 9: Leadership development

9.1 How leadership evolves in growing companies
Ken Russell, Aberdeen Business School
Reflecting on your leadership practice 334; Requisite decision-making processes 335; Maintaining a growth and innovation orientation 335; Summary 336

9.2 Succession planning in family businesses
Oliver Hoffman, Mazars
Succession planning 338; Management succession 339; Ownership succession 340; Conclusion 341

9.3 Professional leaders
Ruth Spellman, Chartered Management Institute

9.4 Intuition in leadership and management
Eugene Sadler-Smith, University of Surrey
Can intuition be defined? 348; Can intuition be explained? 350; Can intuition be useful? 351; Final thoughts 352

9.5 MBAs for smaller companies
Jeanette Purcell, AMBA
Some ideas for checklists, boxes, graphs 357

Part 10: Managing setbacks

10.1 Turnaround management
Richard Pai, Business School Lausanne
Why change? 363; What to change? 364; How to change? 364
10.2 Restructure and reorganize
Tony Hyams-Parish, Rawlison Butler
Seeking changes to a contract of employment 367; Closing part of the business and relocation 369; Group companies and inter-group transfers 370

10.3 How to turn risks around
Manjit Bains, Bespoke
Symptoms of ineffective risk management 375; So how do you change this? 375; Summary 377

10.4 How not to turn a drama into a crisis
Mike Hogan and David Evans, Link Associates
This is where you need a ‘cunning plan’ 381

Part 11: International expansion

11.1 The export challenge
Jim Sherlock, trainer, consultant and author

11.2 Business travel
Norman Gage, Advantage Business Travel
Booking business travel 389; Why outsource? 391; Finding a TMC 391; Implementing a travel policy 392

11.3 International marketing
Stan Paliwoda, University of Strathclyde

Feature: Growth journeys
British Airways

Profile: UK Trade & Investment (UKTI) – your gateway to global growth 404

Part 12: Acquisitions

12.1 Acquisitions as a route to growth
Richard Hopkins, Mazars
Valuations 416; Acquisition drivers 416; Resources 417; Structure 417; Organic growth 418; How to spot a bargain 418

12.2 How to pick up a bargain acquisition and turn it around
Andrew Duncan, Bridge Business Recovery LLP
Locating the opportunity 422; Assessing the opportunity 422; Negotiating the purchase 423; Professional help 423; The turnaround 423; In conclusion 424

12.3 Acquisition solutions
Paul Warren, Apex Corporate Finance
Create a clear acquisition strategy 425; Find and engage the right target 425; Use advisers to make approaches 427; Understand vendor/management expectations 427; Structure the deal right 427; Use a dedicated resource for execution 428; Communicate the acquisition 428; You cannot think too early about integration 428; Choose the right advisers 428

12.4 A legal guide to making acquisitions
Jonathan Roberts, Warners
Which deal is the right deal? 430; Heads of terms 431; Share sale or asset sale? 431; Due diligence 431; Legal documentation 432; Buying a bargain? 433

Part 13: Growth capital

13.1 The upsides of the downturn
Paul Beber and Brian Johnson, The Fisher Organisation
Considering other types of finance 437; When the going gets tough 439; And the upsides? 439; Conclusion 440

13.2 The brave new world of tax
Adrian Mole, Mazars
Incorporation into a company 443; Conversion of income to capital 443; Pension scheme planning 444; Profitability planning 444; Tax deferral 445

13.3 Growing financial complexity
Matt Holmes, Liquid Accounts
Having a good, flexible and robust accounting system in place 448; Making sure it’s set up to give you the information you need 448; Making sure that it’s kept up to date and that you get into good bookkeeping habits 449; Making sure that you review your figures regularly and make use of the information you gain from them 449; What mistakes do people make? 450; How to get yourself out of trouble 450

Index of advertisers 453