
Institutional Economics

An Introduction

JOHN GROENEWEGEN
ANTOON SPITHOVEN
and
ANNETTE VAN DEN BERG

palgrave
macmillan

Contents

	List of Figures, Tables and Boxes	ix
	Preface	xiii
	Acknowledgments	xv
	About the Authors	xvii
	List of Abbreviations	xix
PART I	INTRODUCTION
	Introduction	2
1	What Is Institutional Economics About?	5
	Introduction: a world of transactions	5
	Coordinating transactions in a complex world	8
	Institutional Economics	13
	Institutions matter	36
	A brief outline of the book	38
	Review questions	42
	Appendix A: Neoclassical analysis of market structures	44
	Appendix B: Deviations from the perfect competition model	50
PART II	THEORY
	Introduction	54
2	Theoretical Framework	55
	Introduction	55
	On theory	56
	Two schools in Institutional Economics: NIE and OIE	64
	On the relevance of institutional theories	78
	A closer look at economic systems	82
	Concluding remarks	85
	Review questions	85
	Appendix A: Veblen and Commons, the founding fathers of Institutional Economics	87
	Appendix B: Douglass North	88

3	Static Approaches to Institutions	91
	Introduction	91
	Property rights theory	93
	Contract theories	106
	Transaction cost theory of governance structures	118
	The vested interest approach	129
	Concluding remarks	132
	Review questions	133
4	The Dynamics of Institutions	135
	Introduction	135
	Drivers of institutional change	136
	The evolutionary approach toward the dynamics of institutions	141
	The design approach toward the dynamics of institutions	150
	Dynamics of economic systems	155
	Concluding remarks	157
	Review questions	158
PART III PRIVATE GOVERNANCE STRUCTURES
	Introduction	160
5	Markets	167
	Introduction	167
	The static efficiency approach to markets	170
	The static vested interest approach to markets	183
	The dynamic efficiency approach to markets	185
	The dynamic vested interests approach to markets	192
	Concluding remarks	196
	Review questions	197
	Appendix: Different types of auctions	198
6	Firms	201
	Introduction	201
	The static efficiency approach to firms	203
	The static vested interest approach to firms	211
	The dynamic efficiency approach to firms	221
	The dynamic vested interest approach to firms	226
	Concluding remarks	232
	Review questions	233
7	Cooperation between Firms	235
	Introduction	235
	Cooperation between firms in theory and practice	236
	The static efficiency approach to hybrids	245
	The static vested interest approach to hybrids	250
	The dynamic efficiency approach to hybrids	251

	The dynamic vested interest approach to hybrids	254
	Concluding remarks	258
	Review questions	259
PART IV	PUBLIC GOVERNANCE STRUCTURES
	Introduction	262
8	State Intervention to Protect the Public Interest	271
	Introduction	271
	The static approach to state intervention	272
	The dynamic approach to state intervention	305
	Concluding remarks	319
	Review questions	319
	Appendix A: Elaboration of the fixed costs argument and returns to scale	321
	Appendix B: Graphical illustration of the difficulties of regulating a natural monopoly	323
	Appendix C: Graphical illustration of a corrective tax in case of a negative externality	324
9	Government Failures	325
	Introduction	325
	The static approach to government failures	328
	The dynamic approach to government failures	348
	Concluding remarks	362
	Review questions	363
	Appendix A: Arrow's impossibility theorem	364
	Appendix B: Graphical elaboration of the bureaucracy theory	366
	Epilog	367
	Glossary	369
	References	379
	Index	385