Challenging the Conventional Wisdom on the Property Tax

Edited by Roy Bahl, Jorge Martinez-Vazquez, and Joan Youngman

LINCOLN INSTITUTE OF LAND POLICY
CAMBRIDGE, MASSACHUSETTS
Contents

List of Illustrations vii
Foreword xi
Gregory K. Ingram

1 Whither the Property Tax: New Perspectives on a Fiscal Mainstay 3
Roy Bahl, Jorge Martinez-Vazquez, and Joan Youngman

2 The Efficiency Costs of a Local Property Tax 15
Athiphat Muthitacharoen and George R. Zodrow

Commentary 43
James Alm

3 Measuring Behavioral Responses to the Property Tax 47
John Deskins and William Fox

Commentary 67
David L. Sjoquist

4 In Search of an Optimal Revaluation Policy: Benefits and Pitfalls 75
Alan S. Dornfest

Commentary 108
Riêl C. D. Franzsen

5 Rental Value Versus Capital Value: Alternative Bases for the Property Tax 119
William J. McCluskey, Michael E. Bell, and Lay-Cheng J. Lim

Commentary 158
Andrey Timofeev
6 A New Paradigm for Property Taxation in Developing Countries 165
Roy Bahl and Sally Wallace

Commentary 202
Gary Cornia

7 Taxing Property Transactions Versus Taxing Property Ownership 207
Terri A. Sexton

Commentary 235
Robert D. Ebel

8 Fairness and Market Value Property Taxation 241
Steven M. Sheffrin

Commentary 263
C. Kurt Zorn

9 Framing the Political Economy of Property Taxation and Land Taxation 269
Michael A. Pagano and Benoy Jacob

Commentary 293
Daphne A. Kenyon

10 Assignment of the Property Tax: Should Developing Countries Follow the Conventional View? 299
Jorge Martinez-Vazquez, Luc Noiset, and Mark Rider

Commentary 350
Andrew Reschovsky

Contributors 355
Index 359
About the Lincoln Institute of Land Policy 371