CONTENTS

Introduction (Johanna Pink) ........................................... ix

I  Spaces of Consumption in a Globalized World ............... 1

1  Halal, Haram, or What? Creating Muslim Space in London
   (Johan Fischer) ...................................................... 3

2  New Transnational Geographies of Islamism, Capitalism, and Subjectivity: The Veiling-Fashion Industry in Turkey (Banu Gökärksel and Anna Secor) ........................................... 23

3  The Shopping Mall: The Enchanted Part of a Disenchanted City.
   The Case of ANKA mall, Ankara (Aksu Akçaoğlu) ............. 53

4  Between East and West: Consumer Culture and Identity
   Negotiation in Contemporary Turkey (Tanfer Emin Tunç) ..... 73

II  Facetted Consumer Identities: Politics and Strategies of Consumption .......................................................... 87

5  Consumers’ Monarchy: Citizenship, Consumption, and Material
    Politics in Saudi Arabia since the 1970s (Relli Shechter) ..... 89

6  The Cola Turka Controversy: Consuming Cola as a Turkish
    Muslim (Dilek Kaya Mutlu) ......................................... 105

7  Consumption in Yemen: Continuity and Change (Ulrike Stohrer) . 129

8  (Un-)Islamic Consumers? The Case of Polish Tatars (Katarzyna Górak-Sosnowska and Michał Lyszczarz) ....................... 145

9  Marketing the Alevi Musical Revival (Ayhan Erol) ............ 165
Contents

III Islamic Products, Islamic Brands, and Muslim Target Groups 185

10 Barbie, Razanne, Fulla: A Tale of Culture, Globalization, Consumerism, and Islam (Petra Kuppinger) 187

11 Islamizing the Market? Advertising, Products, and Consumption in an Islamic Framework in Syria (Alina Kokoschka) 225

12 Video Games, Video Clips, and Islam: New Media and the Communication of Values (Vít Šisler) 241

13 Representation of Fashion as Muslima Identity in Paras Magazine (Firly Annisa) 271

14 The Re-Spiritualization of Consumption or the Commercialization of Religion: Creativity, Responsibility, and Hope. The Case of Sunsilk Clean and Fresh in Indonesia (Ragnar K. Willer) 281

15 American-Muslim Identity: Advertising, Mass Media + New Media (Michael Hastings-Black) 303

IV Epilogue 325

16 The Economic Politics of Muslim Consumption (Patrick Haenni) 327

List of Contributors 343