Table of Contents

INTRODUCTIONS

Felix Rauner and Erica Smith ................................................................. 11
Dagmar Ouzoun ......................................................................................... 12
Helmut Zelloth ......................................................................................... 14

KEYNOTES

Apprenticeship, Pathways and Career Guidance: A Cautionary Tale
Richard Sweet .......................................................................................... 17
Vocational Identity and Flexible Work: A Contradicting or Constructive Relation?
Walter R. Heinz ....................................................................................... 33

CHAPTER I
MANAGING THE TRANSITION FROM GENERAL SCHOOLING TO VOCATIONAL CAREERS

Transition from Lower- to Upper-Secondary School in the Canton of Ticino (Switzerland): The Choices made by Young People
Luca Bausch and Elena Boldrini ............................................................. 49
Dropout Rates in Vocational Education and Training: A Failure of the School-to-Work Transition?
Marine Jordan, Nadia Lamamra, Jonas Masdonati .................................. 54
A Dynamic Concept of Culture as a New Approach to Investigate the Gap between Schooling, Vocational Training System and the Youth
Stefan Wolf .............................................................................................. 58
Managing the Transition from School-to-Work – Empirical Findings from a Mentoring Programme in Germany
Martin Lang .............................................................................................. 63
The Transition from Secondary School to Vocational Education and Training
Katya DeGiovanni and Damian Spiteri ..................................................... 67
Experiential Learning Assessment and Competence Development for a Second Career: The Case of Alternating Training Programmes for Professional Promotion
Philippe Astier and Lucie Petit .................................................................. 71
Career Education and Orientation Year: Effective Transition Tools from General Schooling to Vocational Education. The Case of Kosovo
Lumnie Mehmetal ..................................................................................... 76
Boundary Crossing: Transitioning Students to Work through Authentic Employment-Based Training in an Australian Senior Secondary VET Program
Terry O'Hanlon-Rose and Alan Roberts ................................................... 80
CHAPTER II
BUILDING VOCATIONAL IDENTITY: A CENTRAL TASK OF APPRENTICESHIP / COMPETENCE EVALUATION AND DEVELOPMENT

Low Achievers in Vocational Education and Training: PISA Literacy Scores and Educational Success
Barbara E. Stalder ................................................................. 125

Occupational Identity in Australian Traineeships: An Initial Exploration
Erica Smith ........................................................................ 130

Occupational Identity and Motivation of Apprentices in a System of Integrated Dual VET
Ursel Hauschildt, Lars Heinemann, Dorothea Piening ..................................................... 135

Ensuring Inter-Rater Reliability in a Large Scale Competence Measurement Project in China
Andrea Maurer, Felix Rauner, Lars Heinemann ................................................................. 139

Project Teaching of School-Enterprise Cooperation Based on Real Production Contract - Case Study of GTI
Donglian Gu, Zishi Luo and Zhiqun Zhao ..................................................................... 143
Can Apprenticeship be Innovative? Reconceptualising the Learning Journey in the Knowledge Economy
Alison Fuller and Lorna Unwin .................................................................147

Conceptual Change – A new Research Task in TVET
Waldemar Bauer ..........................................................................................151

Work-Based Learning in Apprenticeship - Reflections on Irish Cases
Barry Nyhan ..................................................................................................155

Co-operation between Schools and Enterprises: The Case of BITC Beijing
Ludger Deitmer Lars Heinemann and Mingying Xu .....................................159

To Earn or to Learn? Identity Implication of Microtransitions from Failure to Success in Working Class Adolescents Implied in Innovative Vocational Training
Laura Bonica and Viviana Sappa .................................................................164

The Contribution of Older Workers to Innovative Apprenticeship, from the Perspective of Cultural Historical Activity Theory
Maria-Cristina Migliore ..................................................................................170

Transforming a Child Labour Scheme into a Modern Apprenticeship one: The Role of NGOs and Government. The Apprenticeship Component of the CCL Project
Luca Azzoni ....................................................................................................175

Approaches towards a Qualitative-Ranked Measuring of Competencies in LSA
Rainer Bremer and Andreas Saniter ..............................................................185

CHAPTER III
LEVELS OF GOVERNANCE AND THE ROLE OF STAKEHOLDERS IN APPRENTICESHIP

Apprenticeship and Modern Vocational Education – The Rise of the German ‘Dual System’
Philipp Gonon ...............................................................................................193

The EQF and Apprenticeship: The Case of Bricklaying
Michaela Brockmann, Linda Clarke and Christopher Winch ......................197

The Role and Impact of the Main Stakeholders in the Reform of the Initial Vocational Training (VET) in Switzerland Taking into Account Regional and Organizational Specifities
Caroline Meier Quevedo .............................................................................201

Pathway Planning: Examining the Benefits and Outcomes of a Traineeship and Apprenticeship Pathway Program
Thao Le and Martin Stalker ...........................................................................205

Differences in the Organisation of Apprenticeship in Europe: Findings of a Comparative Evaluation Study
Felix Rauner ..................................................................................................209

‘Employability and Employment’ – Innovative Policies and Measures in the German TVET Cooperation
Michaela C. A. Henn ....................................................................................214
Mubarak-Kohl Initiative for Dual System (MKI-DS) – The Case of Egypt. Successful in Reforming the TVET System and Shaping the Society
Bernhard Becker und Edda Grunwald

Intermediary Bodies in Apprenticeship: An Answer to Challenges in HRD in the Building and Construction Sector in Egypt
Aboubakr Abdeen Badawi

VET for Youth in Canada and the United States
Antje Barabasch, Alison Taylor and Bonnie Watt-Malcolm

Towards Building Quality Assurance in the Regional Integrated Vocational Training Centres in Hungary
Magdolina Benke

Accelerated Artisan Training at the Manufacturing Coalface: Responding to the Skills Challenge in South Africa
Salim Akoojee and Helen Brown

Apprenticeship as a Successful Tradition and an Innovation in Croatian Education System
Olga Lui

Role of Social Partners and the Status of Apprenticeship in Turkey
Arjen Vos and Özlem Ünlühisarcıklı

The Algerian Experience of Developing an Apprenticeship System
Kayouche Sid Ali

'Last Mile to the Job' – Training on Demand in the IT Offshoring Sector
Mohamed Slassi Sennou

A Renaissance for Apprenticeship Learning? - and its Implications for Transition Countries
Sören Nielsen