Impression Management in the Workplace

Research, Theory, and Practice

Andrew J. DuBrin

Rochester Institute of Technology

Routledge

NEW YORK AND LONDON
Full Contents

Preface xiv
Purpose and Goals of the Book xiv
Structure of the Book xv
Companion Website xvi
Acknowledgments xvi
About the Author xvi

CHAPTER 1
The Meaning and Nature of Impression Management 1
The Origins of the Modern Study of Impression Management 2
A Variety of Definitions of Impression Management 3
Impression Motivation and Impression Construction 4
Impression Motivation 6
Motives for Impression Management and Self-Presentation 6
Antecedents of Impression Motivation 8
Impression Construction 9
Ethical Considerations Associated with Impression Management 12
Guidelines for Application and Practice 13
Summary 14

CHAPTER 2
A Cybernetic Model of Impression Management 16
A Brief Look at Cybernetic Theory 17
The Basic Components of the Model 18
Reference Goal: Desired Social Identity 20
Activation of Identity Goal 21
Goal-Based Interpretation 22
Goal-Directed Motivation 23
Feedback from Target 24
Actor Perception 25
Comparator 25
Identity Enhancement and Identity Protection 26
Identity Adjustment 27
Identity Maintenance 28
Outcome Processing 28
Script Processing 29
Adjustment of Reference Goal 30
Actor Implementation 31
Verbal Tactics 31
Nonverbal Cues 32
Impact on Target 33
Practical Implications of the Model 33
Guidelines for Application and Practice 34
Summary 35

CHAPTER 3
Individual and Organizational Contributing Factors 38
Individual Factors Contributing to Impression Management 38
Self-Monitoring 39
Machiavellianism 44
Trustworthiness 45
Extraversion 47
Optimism 47
Cognitive Skills 48
Gender Differences 48
Gender Differences in Communication Patterns 48
Gender Differences in Profiles of Impression Management 50
Dimensions of Organizational Culture Associated with Impression Management 50
Situational Factors Contributing to Impression Management 53
CHAPTER 4

Substantive Approaches to Self-Presentation 60
Self-Presentation of Characteristics and Behaviors 60
Being Persuasive 60
Developing a Positive Reputation 63
Publicizing Personal Connections 65
Using Appropriate Humor 65
Being Civil and Humble 66
Managing Anger Effectively 67
Self-Presentation of Work Accomplishments 68
Displaying Organizational Citizenship Behavior 68
How Concerns about Image Drive Citizenship Behavior 69
Impression-Management-Relevant Characteristics of Organizational Citizenship Behavior 70
The Potential Downside of Using Organizational Citizenship Behavior for Image Enhancement 71
Becoming a Subject Matter Expert 72
Taking Credit for a Favorable Event 72
Providing Timely Progress Reports 73
Making a Quick Showing 74
Demonstrating the Ability to Multitask 74
Avoiding Unfavorable Self-Presentation 75

CHAPTER 5

Surface-Level Approaches to Self-Presentation 80
Clothing, Dress, and Appearance 81
Clothing and Dress 81
Perceptions of Sexiness Based on Clothing 84
Perceptions of Appearance Based on Obesity and Complaints about Health 85
Height as a Contributor to Image Projection 86
Business Etiquette 87
First-Impression Making 89
Nonverbal Impression Management 90
The Alpha Male or Female 92
Personal Branding 94
The Personal Brand as a Professional Identity 94
Coaching Assistance with Branding 95
Strong Personal Brands for Businesspersons and Professional Athletes 95
Guidelines for Application and Practice 97
Summary 99

CHAPTER 6

Being Impressive by Making Others Feel Good 101
Ingratiation for Enhancing Others 102
Why Ingratiation Is Important 102
Political Skill and Ingratiation 105
An Executive-Level Study about the Effectiveness of Ingratiation 106
Flattery as a Method of Ingratiation 108
Making Other People Feel Important as a Form of Flattery 109
Mixing Mild Criticism to Increase the Effectiveness of Flattery 109
Self-Perceived Technical Orientation as a Variable that Influences Flattery 110
Opinion Conformity as a Method of Ingratiation 111
Humor for Ingratiation and Enhancement of Others 112
Political Correctness for Enhancing Others 113
Guidelines for Application and Practice 114
Summary 116

CHAPTER 7
Self-Protection Techniques 118
Self-Handicapping 119
Self-Esteem Protection 119
The Effects of Status on Self-Handicapping 121
Background Information about Status and Self-Handicapping 121
Research Design and Results of the Study 122
Procrastination as Self-Handicapping 123
Gender Differences in Self-Handicapping 126
Damage Control 128
Admitting Mistakes 128
Apologizing, Pardon Seeking, and Making Excuses 129
Apologizing and Pardon Seeking 129
Excuses and the Self-Serving Bias 129
Recovering from a Major Error on the Job 131
Anger Control 132
Guidelines for Application and Practice 132
Summary 133

CHAPTER 8
Impression Management for Job Search and Performance Evaluation 136

Impression Management Related to the Job Interview 136
Impression Management Tactics Frequently Used during the Job Interview 137
Assertiveness 137
Self-Promotion 137
Ingratiation 138
Entitlements and Enhancements 140
Basking in Reflected Glory 140
Opinion Conformity 141
Excuses 141
Justifications 141
Apologies 142
Falsification and Information Filtering 143
Nonverbal Behavior 143
Physical Appearance and Attractiveness 144
Situational Attributes that Influence the Choice of Impression Management Tactics 145
Attributes of the Interviewee 145
Attributes of the Interviewer 146
Attributes of the Situation 146
Candidate Self-Monitoring and Interview Ratings 147
Impression Management versus Job Competencies in Determining Interview Ratings 148
Post-Interview Impression Management 150
Impression Management for Traditional and Video Résumés 150
Traditional Résumés 151
Video Résumés 151
Impression Management during Performance Evaluation 152
Contents

Variables Influencing Impression Management for Performance Evaluation 153
Performance Blips and Ingratiation to Enhance Performance Evaluations 153
Guidelines for Application and Practice 154
Summary 156

CHAPTER 9

Impression Management for Leaders 158
Projecting a Leadership Image 158
Acting Skills Required for Winning over an Audience 159
Connecting with the Audience 159
Understanding and Exploiting Symbols 160
Listening Empathetically 161
Improvising 162
Radiating Confidence 163
Projecting Discipline and Toughness 163
Honesty 163
Implicit Leadership Theories and the Projection of a Leadership Image 164
Specific Influence Tactics for Projecting a Leadership Image 165
Leading by Example and Respect 165
Exchanging Favors and Bargaining 166
Making an Inspirational Appeal 166
Consultation with Others 166
Being a Team Player 167
Practicing Hands-On Leadership 167
Being a Servant Leader 167
Impression Management and Charismatic Leadership 169

Definitions of Charismatic Leadership that Include an Element of Impression Management 169
Impression Management in the Service of Creating and Maintaining a Charismatic Identity 170
The Role of High Self-Esteem and High Self-Monitoring 171
Desired Identity Images 172
Specific Impression Management Behaviors 172
Guidelines for Application and Practice 174
Summary 175

CHAPTER 10

Impression Management by Organizations 177
Corporate Image and Reputation 177
The Theory of Corporate Image 179
The Construction of a Corporate Image 180
Corporate Image and Online Reputation 181
Association with Celebrities 182
Sponsored Research to Enhance a Company Reputation 182
Spin as Impression Management 184
Corporate Social Responsibility and Impression Management 185
The Meaning of Corporate Social Responsibility 186
Corporate Social Performance 187
Social Responsibility Initiatives 187
Expressing an Environmental Commitment 188
Work-Life Programs 189
Community Redevelopment Projects 189
Acceptance of Whistle Blowers 190
Compassionate Downsizing 190
Guidelines for Application and Practice 191
Summary 192
CHAPTER 11

Functional and Dysfunctional Consequences of Impression Management 195

Functional Consequences of Impression Management 195

Successful Outcomes of the Employment Interview 195

Improved Performance Evaluation and Supervisory Ratings 197

Career Advancement 198

Improved Relationships with Work Associates 199

Cooperative Behavior and Satisfaction within Teams 199

Enhanced Sales and Stock Price for the Organization 200

Dysfunctional Consequences of Impression Management 201

Ethical Lapses Including Faking, Lying, and Stealing 202

Diversion of Mental Resources 203

Engendering of Mistrust and Dislike of the Actor 204

Emotional Labor and Distress 204

Choking under Pressure 205

Guidelines for Application and Practice 205

Summary 206

GLOSSARY 207

NOTES 210

INDEX 227