Contents

Introduction

Part I Essentials of Reward Management

1. An Overview of Reward Management
   Introduction 6; Reward management defined 6; Characteristics of reward management 7; The reward management framework 9; Aims of reward management 9; Achieving the aims in general 11; Achieving the specific aims 14; Contextual factors 16; Fundamental concepts 19; Pay level concepts 22; Effective reward management 23; References 24

2. The Reward System
   Introduction 27; How a reward system operates 27; Components of a reward system 28; Reward systems in action 35; References 38

3. Total Rewards
   Introduction 40; Total rewards defined 40; Underpinning concepts 41; The elements of total rewards 42; The significance of total rewards 43; Models of total rewards 44; Models of total rewards produced by other consultants 47; Introducing total rewards 49; Total rewards in practice 55; Conclusion 60; References 60

4. Strategic Reward
   Introduction 62; Strategic reward management defined 63; The rationale for strategic reward 63; The problem with the concept of strategic reward 64; Characteristics of strategic reward 65; Reward philosophy 65; Guiding principles 66; Reward strategy 72; Developing reward strategy 79; Implementing reward strategy 84; References 85
5. International Reward
Introduction 87; The international scene 88; International reward strategy 89; Rewards for expatriates 92; References 96

Part II Performance and Reward

6. Performance Management and Reward
Introduction 102; The meaning of performance 102; Influences on performance 103; How does reward impact on performance? 105; High-performance cultures 106; High-performance work systems 108; Impact of reward on individual performance 112; Impact of reward on organizational performance 112; Managing organizational performance 113; Managing team performance 117; Managing individual performance 118; References 124

7. Engagement and Reward
Introduction 127; The meaning of employee engagement 128; Why engagement is important 130; The factors that influence engagement 131; Enhancing engagement 132; Developing engagement policies through reward 133; References 135

8. Financial Rewards
Introduction 137; Incentives and rewards 138; The theoretical framework 139; The role of money 143; Views about the importance of pay 143; Research on the effectiveness of financial rewards 147; Arguments for and against financial rewards 152; Criteria for effectiveness 154; Conclusions 156; References 156

9. Non-financial Rewards
Introduction 161; The significance of non-financial rewards 161; Types of non-financial rewards 161; Individual extrinsic rewards 162; Individual intrinsic rewards 163; Collective extrinsic rewards 164; Collective intrinsic rewards 165; References 166

10. Contingent Pay Schemes
Introduction 167; Objectives of contingent pay 168; Criteria for success 168; Performance-related pay 169; Contribution-related pay 173; Competency-related pay 180; Skill-based pay 181; Overall conclusions on contingent pay 183; Summary of individual contingent pay schemes 183; References 185
11. Bonus Schemes
Introduction 187; Bonus schemes defined 188; Aims of bonus schemes 188; Rationale for bonus schemes 189; Criteria for a bonus scheme 190; Types of scheme 191; Designing a bonus scheme 193; Introducing a bonus scheme 195; References 196

12. Team Pay
Introduction 197; Team pay defined 198; Aim of team pay 199; Rationale for team pay 200; How team pay works 200; Requirements for team pay 202; Advantages and disadvantages of team pay 202; Developing team pay 203; NHS case study 204; References 205

13. Rewarding for Business Performance
Introduction 206; Types of schemes 207; Aims 207; Profit-sharing 208; Share ownership schemes 209; Save-as-you-earn schemes 209; Gain-sharing 210; References 211

14. Recognition Schemes
Introduction 212; Recognition schemes defined 212; Benefits of recognition schemes 213; Principles of recognition 213; Types of recognition 214; Examples of non-cash awards 216; Designing a recognition scheme 216; Examples of recognition schemes 217

Part III Valuing and Grading Jobs

15. Pay Levels
Introduction 224; Determinants of pay 224; Pay levels within organizations 229; Pay systems 230; Factors affecting pay levels 232; References 233

16. Job Evaluation Schemes
Introduction 236; The purposes of job evaluation 236; Achieving the purposes 237; Analytical job evaluation schemes 238; Non-analytical schemes 242; Market pricing 245; Levelling 246; Job analysis for job evaluation 248; Computer-aided job evaluation 249; Choice of approach 251; Developing a point-factor job evaluation scheme 255; References 263

17. Equal Pay
Introduction 264; Reasons for unequal pay 266; The equal pay legal framework 268; Achieving equal pay 273; Risk assessment 275; Defending an equal pay claim 276; References 278
18. Market Rate Analysis
Introduction 281; The concept of a market rate 281; Job matching 282; Use of benchmark jobs 283; Sources of market data 284; Interpreting and presenting market rate data 286; Using survey data 289

19. Grade and Pay Structures
Introduction 291; Grade structures 291; Pay structures 292; Guiding principles for grade and pay structures 293; Narrow-graded structures 293; Broad-graded structures 297; Broad-banded structures 301; Career-family structures 308; Job-family structures 314; Combined career/job-family and broad-banded structures 318; Pay spines 320; Spot rates 321; Individual job grades 321; Choice of grade and pay structures 322; Developing a grade and pay structure 325; References 332

Part IV Rewarding Special Groups

20. Rewarding Directors and Senior Executives
Introduction 336; Executive pay levels 336; Factors affecting the level and nature of executive rewards 337; Why has executive pay grown so much? 340; Corporate governance and executive remuneration 340; Directors’ and senior executives’ remuneration 342; Benefits 345; Service contracts 346; References 346

21. Rewarding Sales and Customer Service Staff
Introduction 348; Rewarding sales representatives 348; Salary only 349; Rewarding customer service staff 354; References 358

22. Rewarding Knowledge Workers
Introduction 359; What motivates knowledge workers? 360; Approaches to rewarding knowledge workers 361; References 364

23. Rewarding Manual Workers
Introduction 366; Factors affecting the pay of manual workers 366; Time rates 367; Pay structures 367; Incentive schemes for manual workers 368; Payment by results schemes 370; Contingent pay schemes 372; Collective schemes 373; Assessment of schemes 373; Single status and harmonization 377; References 378
Part V  Employee Benefit and Pension Schemes  379

24.  Employee Benefits  381

Introduction 381; Rationale for employee benefits 382; Employee benefit strategies and policies 382; Types of benefit 383; Incidence of benefits 385; Choice of benefits 386; Administering employee benefits 386; Total reward statements 386; Reference 387

25.  Flexible Benefits  388

Introduction 388; Reasons for introducing flexible benefits 388; Types of flexible benefits schemes 389; Introducing flexible benefits 392; Reference 393

26.  Pension Schemes  394

Introduction 394; Why occupational pensions are provided 395; What occupational pension schemes provide 395; The two main types of occupational schemes 396; Other types of pension schemes 400; The state pension scheme 401; Advising employees on pensions 401; Developing and communicating pensions policies 402; Reference 403

Part VI  The Practice of Reward Management  405

27.  Developing Reward Systems  407

Introduction 407; The task of developing and implementing reward systems 408; Objective setting 408; The approach to development and implementation 410; The development and implementation programme 413; Advice from practitioners 415; References 420

28.  Managing Reward Systems  421

Introduction 422; Reward policies 422; Controlling reward 426; Monitoring and evaluating reward policies and practices 427; Conducting pay reviews 429; General reviews 429; Individual reviews 430; Reward procedures 434; The use of computers in reward management 435; Communicating to employees 437; References 439

29.  Evaluating Reward Management  440

Introduction 440; Why evaluate? 441; Why don’t people evaluate? 442; What can be done about it? 443; Reward effectiveness reviews 444; Evaluating the impact of reward innovations 449; References 451
30. Responsibility for Reward

Introduction 452; The role of the reward professional 452; Role of line managers 455; Using reward consultants 456; References 457

Appendix A: Reward Attitude Survey 459
Appendix B: Employee Engagement Survey 461
Index 463

This book is accompanied by additional online material. To access these resources go to www.koganpage.com/resources and under ‘Academic Resources’ click on either ‘Student Resources’ or ‘Lecturer Resources’ as appropriate.