Political Developments in Contemporary China
A guide

Ian Jeffries
Contents

Acknowledgements vii

Introduction 1

1 Demographic, historical and political background 2
   Population 2
   Chinese civilization 5
   The period 1911 to 1949 10
   Communist China 11
   Demography 29

2 China and Taiwan 47
   A chronology of events since 4 May 2006 48

3 The regaining of sovereignty over Hong Kong and Macao (and later developments) 134
   The regaining of sovereignty over Macao on 20 December 1999 134
   The regaining of sovereignty over Hong Kong on 1 July 1997 137
   A chronology of political events since 1 July 2006 138

4 Tibet 161
   Historical background 161
   Demographic, social and economic developments 167
   A chronology of important events 171
   A chronology of events since May 1995 171
Contents

5 Uighurs
A chronology of political events since 9 May 2006 329

6 Human rights
A chronology of developments in human rights since 16 May 2006 388
Religion: a chronology of developments since 3 May 2006 420
The use of the internet and mobile phones 432
Study abroad 470
Direct elections at the local level 471

7 Health issues
SARS and EV71 472
Bird flu 476
AIDS 516
Pig disease 523
Swine flu 525
Pneumonic plague 537
Food contamination and defective goods 538

8 Developments, congresses and Central Committee sessions since May 2006
The earthquake of 12 May 2008 758
The Olympic Games 821
General developments from 20 August 2008 onwards 866

Postscript

Bibliography 1016
Index 1027