The Organization of Manual Labor in Ur III Babylonia: Volume 1

by

Benjamin Studevent-Hickman

to

The Department of Near Eastern Languages and Civilizations

in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the degree of

Doctor of Philosophy

in the subject of

Near Eastern Languages and Civilizations

January 2006
Table of Contents

Chapter 1: The Ur III State and Its Workforce ................................................................. 1
  1.A Work, Manual Labor, and the Case of Ancient Sumer ............................................. 1
  1.B The City of Ur and the Ur III Workforce ............................................................... 3
  1.C Native Terminology for the Members of the Ur III Workforce and a History of Scholarship ................................................................. 11
  1.D The Evidence, Methodological Considerations, and the Layout of the Present Study ................................................................. 16

Chapter 2: The Province of Umma\textsuperscript{ki} ............................................................ 22
  2.A Overviews of the Province ....................................................................................... 22
    2.A.1 Archaeological Data and General Geography ................................................ 22
    2.A.2 Textual and Glyptic Evidence ........................................................................... 24
    2.A.2.1 The Labor Records and Native Terminology .............................................. 25
    2.A.3 The Economic Organization of the Province .................................................. 26
  2.B Agricultural Labor .................................................................................................. 28
    2.B.1 Agricultural Labor in Da-Umma\textsuperscript{ki} .................................................. 30
    2.B.2 Agricultural Management in A-pi4-sal4\textsuperscript{ki} ....................................... 46
    2.B.3 Agriculture Management in Gu2-eden-na\textsuperscript{ki} and Muš-bi-an-na ............. 48
    2.B.4 The Account of Ur-mes son of Ur-\textsuperscript{d}Ašnan ........................................... 49
  2.C The Grain Processing Industry ............................................................................... 55
    2.C.1 Umma\textsuperscript{ki}'s Brewing and Kitchen Administration ................................... 56
    2.C.2 Milling ............................................................................................................... 69
  2.D The Textile Industry ............................................................................................... 73
  2.E Unskilled Labor and the Labor Office ................................................................. 75
    2.E.1 The Account of Lu2-\textsuperscript{d}Sara2 .................................................................... 76
3.B.4.4 The Shipyard

3.B.4.4 Miscellaneous Other Households

3.C The Gu2-Id2-Niginki-še3-du District

3.C.1 Overviews of the District

3.C.1.1 An Account for Lagaški and Niginki

3.C.1.2 An Overview of Agricultural Labor in the District

3.C.1.3 Menials and Other Labor

3.C.1.3.1 An Overview of Menial Workers and Other Personnel in the Temple Households

3.C.1.3.2 A Record of Votives "From Sag-ub3ki to Ki-nu-nirki"

3.C.1.3.3 "In Ki-nu-nirkiye Niginki"

3.C.1.3.4 A Record in Ki-es3-sa

3.C.1.3.4 The Textile Industry

3.C.1.3.5 Castrators(?) in the Cities

3.C.2 The City of Lagaški

3.C.2.1 Overviews of Agricultural Labor

3.C.2.2 Other Labor

3.C.2.3 The Temple of 4Ga2-tum3-dug3

3.C.2.3.1 Agricultural Labor

3.C.2.3.2 Temple Dependents and Other Labor

3.C.2.4 The (E2-)Ba-gara2 Temple of 4Nin-gir2-su in Lagaški

3.C.2.4.1 Agricultural Labor

3.C.2.4.2 Temple Dependents and Other Labor

3.C.3 The Cities of Niginki and Ki-nu-nirki

3.C.3.1 Temple Households
4.A.2 Hiring Practices in the Provincial Economy and the bala-a gub-ba/bala-a tuš-a System

4.B.1 Practical Considerations

4.B.2 Structural Influences and the Ur III Situation

4.C Final Details

Bibliography