Contents

Preface xi

1 Latin America: The Eternal Land of the Future 1
   • The Economic Future of Latin America and the United States
   • From the Washington Consensus to the Resurgence of Populism: A Brief Overview
   • The Main Argument: A Summary

PART ONE A Long Decline: From Independence to the Washington Consensus

2 Latin America's Decline: A Long Historical View 21
   • A Gradual and Persistent Decline
   • The Poverty of Institutions and Long-Term Mediocrity
   • Currency Crises, Instability, and Inflation
   • Inequality and Poverty
   • So Far from God, and So Close to the United States

3 From the Alliance for Progress to the Washington Consensus 47
   • The Cuban Revolution and the Alliance for Progress
   • Protectionism and Social Conditions
   • Informality and Unemployment
   • Fiscal Profligacy, Monetary Largesse, Instability, and Currency Crises
   • Oil Shocks and Debt Crisis
   • The Lost Decade, Market Reforms, and the Washington Consensus

4 Fractured Liberalism: Latin America's Incomplete Reforms
   - Institutions and Economic Performance
   - Institutions Interrupted: A Latin American Scorecard
   - Economic Policy Reform: A Decalogue Manqué
   - Summing Up: Mediocre Policies and Weak Institutions

5 Chile, Latin America's Brightest Star
   - Chile under President Salvador Allende, 1970–73
   - The Chicago Boys and Chile's Trip to the Market
   - The Chicago Boys, Politics, and Labor Unions
   - Chile: A Case of a Successful Growth Transition
   - Pragmatism, Markets, and Success
   - Restricting Speculative Capital Flows
   - The Key Role of Institutions and the Failure of Copycats
   - Chile's Legacy

6 So Far from God: Mexico's Tequila Crisis of 1994
   - The Mexican Miracle: A Mirage?
   - The Exchange Rate, Capital Flows, and External Imbalances
   - 1994: A Recurrent Nightmare
   - The Aftermath of the Tequila Crisis
   - Lessons from the Mexican Crisis
   - Pegging the Currency: A Recurrent Latin American Mistake

7 The Mother of All Crises: Argentina, 2001–2002
   - A Long History of Instability and High Inflation
   - Please, Tie My Hands!
   - The Mexican Crisis and the Weaknesses of the Convertibility Law
   - The Fixed Exchange Rate Becomes a Straitjacket
   - The Inability to Withstand External Shocks in 1999–2001
   - Another Foretold Disaster
   - Devaluation, Default, and Pesification
   - Social Costs, Recovery, and Populism
PART THREE  The Populist Reaction

8 Populism, Neopopulism, and Inequality in the New Century 165

- Populism and Neopopulism
- The Populist Cycle: From Euphoria to Regret
- The Policies of Neopopulism
- Inequality and Neopopulism in Latin America
- Openness, Globalization, Inequality, and Social Conditions
- Income Disparities and Education
- Populism and Political Institutions
- Neopopulism and Neoconstitutionalism

9 Chávez's Challenge and Lula's Response 191

- Hugo Chávez and the Path to Bolivarian Populism
- The Bolivarian Revolution and Its Disappointment
- Chávez and Social Conditions
- The Surprising Absence of Populism in Brazil
- Stability and Social Programs in Lula's Brazil
- Lula's Pragmatism and Chávez's Ideology
- Brazil's Challenges in the Post-Lula Era

PART FOUR  Challenges for the Future

10 A Three-Speed Latin America for the Twenty-first Century 223

- The Institutions of the State and the Narcotics Trade
- Three Latin American Clusters for the Twenty-first Century
- A Final Word

Notes 237
Bibliography 255
Index 273