Contents

List of illustrations xi
List of contributors xiii
Acknowledgements xvii

Introduction: borders, boundaries and crossings – sport, migration and identities 1
JOSEPH MAGUIRE AND MARK FALCOURS

PART I
Patterns of migration and sport 13

1 From the South to Europe: a comparative analysis of African and Latin American football migration 15
RAFFAELE POLI AND ROGER BESSON

2 Why tax international athlete migration? The ‘Coubertobin’ tax in a context of financial crisis 31
WLADIMIR ANDREFF

3 Moving with the bat and the ball: the migration of Japanese baseball labour, 1912–2009 46
YOSHIO TAKAHASHI AND JOHN HORNE

4 From the Soviet Bloc to the European Community: migrating professional footballers in and out of Hungary 56
GYOZO MOLNAR
PART II
Bridgeheads in migration and sport

5 Preliminary observations on globalisation and the migration of sport labour
JOSEPH MAGUIRE

6 Sport labour migration as a global value chain: the Dominican case
ALAN KLEIN

7 'Net-gains': informal recruiting, Canadian players and British professional ice hockey
RICHARD ELLIOTT AND JOSEPH MAGUIRE

8 'Have board, will travel': global physical youth cultures and trans-national mobility
HOLLY THORPE

PART III
Experiences of migration and sport

9 Migrants, mercenaries and overstayers: talent migration in Pacific Island rugby
ANDREW GRAINGER

10 Blade runners: Canadian migrants and European ice hockey
JOSEPH MAGUIRE

11 Female football migration: motivational factors for early migratory processes
SINE AGERGAARD AND VERA BOTELHO

PART IV
Identities in migration and sport

12 Globetrotters in local contexts: basketball migrants, fans and local identities
MARK FALCOUS AND JOSEPH MAGUIRE
13 Diaspora and global sports migration: a case study in the English and New Zealand contexts 189
TONI BRUCE AND BELINDA WHEATON

14 Tries for the nation? International rugby players' perspectives on national identity 200
JASON TUCK

PART V
Impacts of migration on sports and societies 215

15 The new international division of cultural labour and sport 217
TOBY MILLER, DAVID ROWE AND GEOFFREY LAWRENCE

16 Transnational athletes: celebrities and migrant players in fútbol and hockey 230
RICARDO TRUMPER AND LLOYD L. WONG

17 Out of Africa: the exodus of elite African football talent to Europe 245
PAUL DARBY

18 Touring, travelling and accelerated mobilities: team and player mobilities in New Zealand rugby union 259
CAMILLA OBEL AND TERRY AUSTRIN

Future directions: sporting mobilities, immobilities and moorings 274
MARK FALCOUS AND JOSEPH MAGUIRE

References and bibliography 278
Index 312