Towards a Quantitative Assessment of Aid for Trade

Massimiliano Calì
Dirk Willem te Velde
Contents

Acronyms and abbreviations iv

Summary v

1 Background and Motivation 1

2 The Effectiveness of Aid for Trade 3
   Expected pathways 3
   Empirical literature on aid effectiveness 5

3 The Effects of Aid for Trade – An Empirical Framework 8
   Aid for Trade and the costs of trading 8
   Aid for Trade and exports 9
   Data 10

4 Empirical Results 12
   Aid for Trade and the costs of trading 12
   Aid for Trade and exports 19

5 Policy Implications and Future Research 24

References 26

Appendices 28

1 Defining ‘Trading Across Borders’ 28
2 Doing Business ‘Trading across Borders’ 30

Tables 30

2.1 How Aid for Trade can address market and governance failures 4
4.1 Explaining costs of exports (1n of US$ per container in 2008) 13
4.2 The effects of Aid for Trade on other trade cost variables 17
4.4 Sectoral exports and sectoral aid for productive capacity (1985–2006) 22
4.5 Sectoral exports and aid for productive capacity, developing countries (1985–2006) 23
A1 Trading across borders (sorted by costs to export) 30