PROMOTING 3Rs IN DEVELOPING COUNTRIES

Lessons from the Japanese Experience

Edited by Michikazu Kojima

Institute of Developing Economies IDE-JETRO
Contents

Preface v
List of Contributors vii
Introduction 1
Michikazu Kojima

1. Successful Source Separation in Asian Cities: Lessons from Japan’s Experience and an Action Research in Thailand 9
Yoshifumi Fujii

2. Controlling Pollution in Small-scale Recycling Industries: Experiences in India and Japan 36
Michikazu Kojima and Amit Jain

3. Shipbreaking and Metal Recycling Industries in Taiwan 59
Tadayoshi Terao

4. Stakeholders’ Relationships in Recycling Systems: Experiences in the Philippines and Japan 80
Michikazu Kojima and Ma. Lourdes G. Rebullida

5. Japan’s Automotive Recycling System: Evaluation Three Years after Implementation 107
Kenichi Togawa

6. A Comparative Study of E-waste Recycling Systems in Japan, South Korea and Taiwan from the EPR Perspective: Implications for Developing Countries 125
Sung-Woo Chung and Rie Murakami-Suzuki

7. Transboundary Movement of Recyclable Resources: Current Management System and Practices in Japan 146
Aya Yoshida and Michikazu Kojima

Conclusion 172
Michikazu Kojima