

Governance of Innovation

Firms, Clusters and Institutions in a Changing
Setting

---

Edited by

Maarten J. Arentsen

University of Twente, Enschede, The Netherlands

Wouter van Rossum

Netherlands Defence Academy, Breda, The Netherlands

Albert E. Steenge

University of Groningen, Groningen, The Netherlands

IN ASSOCIATION WITH THE BELGIAN–DUTCH ASSOCIATION FOR INSTITUTIONAL AND POLITICAL ECONOMY

Edward Elgar

Cheltenham, UK • Northampton, MA, USA

Contents

---

List of Contributors	vi
Acknowledgements	viii
List of Abbreviations	ix
1. Governance of Innovation Maarten J. Arentsen, Wouter van Rossum and Albert E. Steenge	1
2. Re-inventing Innovation Pierre-Benoit Joly, Arie Rip and Michael Callon	19
3. Investing in Knowledge: Knowledge, Human Capital and Institutions for the Long Run Growth Daniele Schilirò	33
4. Universities, Patenting and Multiple Markets Wouter van Rossum	51
5. The Firm as a Nexus of Product Cycles: Organizing Intrapreneurship in the Innovative Firm Atle Midttun and Nils-Otto Ørjasæter	65
6. Innovation, Herd Behaviour and Regional Development Gerhard C. Geerdink, Peter J. Stauvermann and Albert E. Steenge	93
7. Do Innovation Clusters Pay Off? Yoram Krozer	107
8. Innovation of Governance: the Case of Emissions Trading Jan-Peter Voß	125
Index	149