How to Negotiate Effectively

David Oliver | Third Edition
Contents

Introduction  1

1 Definition  3
   Know what negotiation is 3; Know what negotiation isn’t 4; Win–win 5

2 Count the cost  9
   Commitment 9; Objective 11; Strategy 12; Tactics 13

3 Seven key elements  15
   Plan and prepare 15; Rehearse 18; Explore and explain 21; Propose 22; Bargain 22; Agree 23; Review 24

4 Introductory comments  25
   The quandary of uncertainty 25; Avoid intransigence 26; Understand aspiration 28; Never say yes first time 28; What we think conditions our approach 29; Before presenting a solution, make sure you understand the needs 30
5  Enhance your authority  33
   The authority of print 33; The authority of information 35; The authority of patience 37;
   The authority of positive posturing 38; The authority of levers 39; The authority of resolved weaknesses 40;
   The authority of clear internal relationships 41

6  Tactics and countermeasures  43
   Aspiration lowering 43; It’s all I have got 45;
   The hurdle! 46; The A-Team factor 47; Erosion 48;
   The upward spiral 50; This is not negotiable 53;
   What ifs 55; Deadlines 56

7  Negotiable variables – or tradeable concessions  59
   Never give, always trade 59; Trade what is inexpensive to you 60; Don’t give goodwill concessions 62

8  Rules for making concessions  63
   Trade in small steps 63; Trade concessions one at a time 63; Aim higher than you think 64; Don’t split the difference 66; Watch out for the shocker 67;
   Don’t be first to accede to pressure on primary items 68; Help the other person to feel they have a good deal 69; Maximise the value of what you offer 70;
   Minimise the value of what they are offering 71; Don’t just think it! 72

9  Looking for negotiable variables  73
   Find areas for negotiable variables 73; Identify key variables and their place in the negotiation 74; Build in some negotiable variables 75; Determine whether this is long term or short term 76; Potential sources of negotiable variables 77; The magic ‘if’ 82; Use silence 82
10 Handling deadlock 85
Watch out for frustration 85; Avoid immovable positions 86; Avoid price rot 87; The bridging moment 87; Make a statement – ask a question 88; The way forward 89

11 Questions, questions, questions 91
Questioning – an overview 91; Questions make the difference 91; Asking questions is the method of navigation 92; The outcome of questions 93; What sort of questions? 94; An exercise 95; Six summary reasons for asking questions 100

12 Profiling for strategic level negotiation 101
Definition 102; Identify appropriate strategies and cost management techniques 102

13 The authority of your counterpart 107
Ensure your counterpart has the authority to negotiate 107; Check the power behind the scenes 108; Manage the power behind the scenes 109; Have we got the decision-maker/s? 109

14 Handling long-term negotiations 113
Story 1 113; Story 2 117

15 Post-purchase remorse can undo the close 121
Keeping positive passion for your service and product range is essential for the close 123

16 Tough or effective? 125
Characteristics of effective negotiators 125; Effective negotiators look at buying and selling in the same deal 126; Effective negotiators balance their team carefully 127; Effective negotiators keep the whole package in mind 127; Effective negotiators have a good alternative 129;
Effective negotiators avoid irritators 129; Effective negotiators embrace mistakes 130; Effective negotiators have an eye for body language 131; Effective negotiators always stay in control 133; Characteristics of ineffective negotiators 133

17 Dos and don'ts 135

Do always maintain the initiative 135; Do put things in writing 136; Do learn to use higher authority 137; Do conceal your emotions 138; Do ask for discount when paying cash 138; Do use experts 139; Don’t expect to win them all 139; Don’t be afraid to break off negotiation 140; Don’t attack your counterpart – attack the problem 141; Don’t show triumph 142; Don’t deal in round numbers 143; Don’t indicate movement before you need to 143; Don’t dig your heels in 143; Don’t be afraid to go back and try again 144; Don’t be afraid of risk 144; Don’t succumb to dangerous phrases 145; Don’t be afraid to make your counterpart work hard 146; Do identify buying signals in your negotiations 146; Do look out for personality mirrors 149

18 Four specific techniques 153

Using social media in negotiation 153; Specific tips for negotiating print and promotion 155; Price rises – how to get it wrong 156; Do research before you buy 157

19 Final words 159

The ones that nearly got away 159; The ten commandments 160; Don’t be afraid to give 161; Don’t forget PREPBAR® 162; How to eat the elephant 163; Contact details 164

Negotiation workshops tailored to your company or department 165

Appendix 167